CONVENTION OF THE WORLD METEOROLOGICAL ORGANIZATION

Considering the need for sustainable development, the reduction of loss of life and property caused by natural disasters and other catastrophic events related to weather, climate and water, as well as safeguarding the environment and the global climate for present and future generations of humankind,

Recognizing the importance of an integrated international system for the observation, collection, processing and dissemination of meteorological, hydrological and related data and products,

Reaffirming the vital importance of the mission of the National Meteorological, Hydrometeorological and Hydrological Services in observing and understanding weather and climate and in providing meteorological, hydrological and related services in support of relevant national needs which should include the following areas:

- (a) Protection of life and property,
- (b) Safeguarding the environment,
- (c) Contributing to sustainable development,
- (d) Promoting long-term observation and collection of meteorological, hydrological and climatological data, including related environmental data,
- (e) Promotion of endogenous capacity-building,
- (f) Meeting international commitments,
- (g) Contributing to international cooperation,

Recognizing also that Members need to work together to coordinate, standardize, improve and encourage efficiencies in the exchange of meteorological, climatological, hydrological and related information between them, in the aid of human activities,

Considering that meteorology is best coordinated at the international level by one responsible international organization,

Considering further the need for close cooperation with other international organizations also working in the areas of hydrology, climate and environment,

The contracting States agree to the present Convention, as follows:

Establishment

ARTICLE 1

The World Meteorological Organization (hereinafter called “the Organization”) is hereby established.

PART II

ARTICLE 2

Purposes

The purposes of the Organization shall be:

(a) To facilitate worldwide cooperation in the establishment of networks of stations for the making of meteorological observations as well as hydrological and other geophysical observations related to meteorology, and to promote the establishment and maintenance of centres charged with the provision of meteorological and related services;

(b) To promote the establishment and maintenance of systems for the rapid exchange of meteorological and related information;

(c) To promote standardization of meteorological and related observations and to ensure the uniform publication of observations and statistics;

(d) To further the application of meteorology to aviation, shipping, water problems, agriculture and other human activities;

(e) To promote activities in operational hydrology and to further close cooperation between Meteorological and Hydrological Services; and

(f) To encourage research and training in meteorology and, as appropriate, in related fields and to assist in coordinating the international aspects of such research and training.

PART III

Membership

ARTICLE 3

Members

The following may become Members of the Organization by the procedure set forth in the present Convention:

(a) Any State represented at the Conference of Directors of the International Meteorological Organization convened at Washington, D.C., on 22 September 1947, as listed in Annex I attached hereto and which signs the present Convention and ratifies it in accordance with Article 32, or which accedes thereto, in accordance with Article 33;

(b) Any Member of the United Nations having a Meteorological Service by acceding to the present Convention in accordance with Article 33;

(c) Any State fully responsible for the conduct of its international relations and having a Meteorological Service, not listed in Annex I of the present Convention and not a Member of the United Nations, after the submission of a request for membership to the Secretariat of the Organization and after its approval by two-thirds of the Members of the Organization as specified in paragraphs (a), (b) and (c) of this Article, by acceding to the present Convention in accordance with Article 33;

(d) Any territory or group of territories maintaining its own Meteorological Service and listed in Annex II attached hereto, upon application of the present Convention on its behalf, in accordance with paragraph (a) of Article 34, by the State or States responsible for its international relations and represented at the Conference of Directors of the International Meteorological Organization convened at Washington, D.C., on 22 September 1947, as listed in Annex I of the present Convention;

(e) Any territory or group of territories not listed in Annex II of the present Convention, maintaining its own Meteorological Service but not responsible for the conduct of its international relations, on behalf of which the present Convention is applied in accordance with paragraph (b) of Article 34; provided that the request for membership is presented by the Member responsible for its international relations, and secures approval by two-thirds of the Members of the Organization as specified in paragraphs (a), (b) and (c) of this Article;

(f) Any trust territory or group of trust territories maintaining its own Meteorological Service, and administered by the United Nations, to which the United Nations applies the present Convention in accordance with Article 34.

Any request for membership in the Organization shall state in accordance with which paragraph of this Article membership is sought.

PART IV

Organization

ARTICLE 4

(a) The Organization shall comprise:

- (1) The World Meteorological Congress (hereinafter called "Congress");
- (2) The Executive Council;
- (3) Regional meteorological associations (hereinafter called "the regional associations");
- (4) Technical commissions;
- (5) The Secretariat.

(b) There shall be a President and three Vice-Presidents of the Organization who shall also be President and Vice-Presidents of Congress and of the Executive Council.

ARTICLE 5

The activities of the Organization and the conduct of its affairs shall be decided by the Members of the Organization.

(a) Such decisions shall normally be taken by Congress in session;

(b) However, except on matters reserved in the Convention for decisions by Congress, decisions may also be taken by Members by correspondence, when urgent action is required between sessions of Congress. Such a vote shall be taken upon receipt by the Secretary-General of the request of a majority of the Members of the Organization, or when so decided by the Executive Council.

Such votes shall be conducted in accordance with Articles 11 and 12 of the Convention and with the General Regulations (hereinafter referred to as “the Regulations”).

PART V

Officers of the Organization and members of the Executive Council

ARTICLE 6

(a) Eligibility for election to the offices of President and Vice-Presidents of the Organization, of president and vice-president of the regional associations, and for membership, subject to the provisions of Article 13 (c) (ii) of the Convention, of the Executive Council, shall be confined to persons who are designated as Directors of their Meteorological or Hydrometeorological Services by the Members of the Organization for the purpose of this Convention, as provided for in the Regulations;

(b) In the performance of their duties, all officers of the Organization and members of the Executive Council shall act as representatives of the Organization and not as representatives of particular Members thereof.

PART VIThe World Meteorological Congress*ARTICLE 7*Composition

(a) The Congress is the general assembly of delegates representing Members and as such is the supreme body of the Organization;

(b) Each Member shall designate one of its delegates, who should be the Director of its Meteorological or Hydrometeorological Service, as its principal delegate at Congress;

(c) With a view to securing the widest possible technical representation, any Director of a Meteorological or Hydrometeorological Service or any other individual may be invited by the President to be present at, and to participate in, the discussions of Congress in accordance with the provisions of the Regulations.

ARTICLE 8Functions

In addition to the functions set out in other Articles of the Convention, the primary duties of Congress shall be:

(a) To determine general policies for the fulfilment of the purposes of the Organization as set forth in Article 2;

(b) To make recommendations to Members on matters within the purposes of the Organization;

(c) To refer to any body of the Organization any matter within the provisions of the Convention upon which such a body is empowered to act;

(d) To determine regulations prescribing the procedures of the various bodies of the Organization, in particular the General, Technical, Financial and Staff Regulations;

(e) To consider the reports and activities of the Executive Council and to take appropriate action in regard thereto;

(f) To establish regional associations in accordance with the provisions of Article 18; to determine their geographical limits, coordinate their activities, and consider their recommendations;

(g) To establish technical commissions in accordance with the provisions of Article 19; to define their terms of reference, coordinate their activities, and consider their recommendations;

(h) To establish any additional bodies it may deem necessary;

(i) To determine the location of the Secretariat of the Organization;

(j) To elect the President and Vice-Presidents of the Organization and members of the Executive Council other than the presidents of the regional associations.

Congress may also take any other appropriate action on matters affecting the Organization.

ARTICLE 9

Execution of Congress decisions

(a) All Members shall do their utmost to implement the decisions of Congress;

(b) If, however, any Member finds it impracticable to give effect to some requirement in a technical resolution adopted by Congress, such Member shall inform the Secretary-General of the Organization whether its inability to give effect to it is provisional or final, and state its reasons therefor.

ARTICLE 10

Sessions

(a) Congress shall normally be convened at intervals as near as possible to four years, at a place and on a date to be decided by the Executive Council;

(b) An extraordinary Congress may be convened by decision of the Executive Council;

(c) On receipt of requests for an extraordinary Congress from one-third of the Members of the Organization the Secretary-General shall conduct a vote by correspondence, and if a simple majority of the Members are in favour an extraordinary Congress shall be convened.

ARTICLE 11

Voting

(a) In a vote in Congress each Member shall have one vote. However, only Members of the Organization which are States (hereinafter referred to as "Members which are States") shall be entitled to vote or to take a decision on the following subjects:

- (1) Amendment or interpretation of the Convention or proposals for a new Convention;
- (2) Requests for membership of the Organization;
- (3) Relations with the United Nations and other intergovernmental organizations;
- (4) Election of the President and Vice-Presidents of the Organization and of the members of the Executive Council other than the presidents of the regional associations;

(b) Decisions shall be by a two-thirds majority of the votes cast for and against, except that elections of individuals to serve in any capacity in the Organization shall be by simple majority of the votes cast. The provisions of this paragraph, however, shall not apply to decisions taken in accordance with Articles 3, 10 (c), 25, 26 and 28 of the Convention.

ARTICLE 12

Quorum

The presence of delegates of a majority of the Members shall be required to constitute a quorum for meetings of Congress. For those meetings of Congress at which decisions are taken on the subjects enumerated in paragraph (a) of Article 11, the presence of delegates of a majority of the Members which are States shall be required to constitute a quorum.

PART VIIThe Executive Council*ARTICLE 13*Composition

The Executive Council shall consist of:

- (a) The President and the Vice-Presidents of the Organization;
- (b) The presidents of regional associations, who can be replaced at sessions by their alternates, as provided for in the Regulations;
- (c) Twenty-seven Directors of Meteorological or Hydrometeorological Services of Members of the Organization, who can be replaced at sessions by alternates, provided:
 - (i) That these alternates shall be as provided for in the Regulations;
 - (ii) That not more than nine and not less than four members of the Executive Council, comprising the President and Vice-Presidents of the Organization, the presidents of regional associations and the twenty-seven elected Directors, shall come from one Region, this Region being determined in the case of each member in accordance with the Regulations.

ARTICLE 14Functions

The Executive Council is the executive body of the Organization and is responsible to Congress for the coordination of the programmes of the Organization and for the utilization of its budgetary resources in accordance with the decisions of Congress.

In addition to functions set out in other Articles of the Convention, the primary functions of the Executive Council shall be:

- (a) To implement the decisions taken by the Members of the Organization either in Congress or by means of correspondence and to conduct the activities of the Organization in accordance with the intention of such decisions;

(b) To examine the programme and budget estimates for the following financial period prepared by the Secretary-General and to present its observations and its recommendations thereon to Congress;

(c) To consider and, where necessary, take action on behalf of the Organization on resolutions and recommendations of regional associations and technical commissions in accordance with the procedures laid down in the Regulations;

(d) To provide technical information, counsel and assistance in the fields of activity of the Organization;

(e) To study and make recommendations on any matter affecting international meteorology and related activities of the Organization;

(f) To prepare the agenda for Congress and to give guidance to the regional associations and technical commissions in the preparation of their work programme;

(g) To report on its activities to each session of Congress;

(h) To administer the finances of the Organization in accordance with the provisions of Part XI of the Convention.

The Executive Council may also perform such other functions as may be conferred on it by Congress or by Members collectively.

Sessions

(a) The Executive Council shall normally hold a session at least once a year, at a place and on a date to be determined by the President of the Organization after consultation with other members of the Council;

(b) An extraordinary session of the Executive Council shall be convened according to the procedures contained in the Regulations, after receipt by the Secretary-General of requests from a majority of the members of the Executive Council. Such a session may also be convened by agreement between the President and the three Vice-Presidents of the Organization.

ARTICLE 16

Voting

(a) Decisions of the Executive Council shall be by two-thirds majority of the votes cast for and against. Each member of the Executive Council shall have only one vote, notwithstanding that he may be a member in more than one capacity;

(b) Between sessions the Executive Council may vote by correspondence. Such votes shall be conducted in accordance with Articles 16 (a) and 17 of the Convention.

ARTICLE 17

Quorum

The presence of two-thirds of the members shall be required to constitute a quorum for meetings of the Executive Council.

PART VIII

Regional associations

ARTICLE 18

(a) Regional associations shall be composed of the Members of the Organization, the networks of which lie in or extend into the Region;

(b) Members of the Organization shall be entitled to attend the meetings of regional associations to which they do not belong, to take part in the discussions and to present their views upon questions affecting their own Meteorological or Hydrometeorological Services, but shall not have the right to vote;

(c) Regional associations shall meet as often as necessary. The time and place of the meeting shall be determined by the presidents of the regional associations in agreement with the President of the Organization;

(d) The functions of the regional associations shall be:

(i) To promote the execution of the resolutions of Congress and the Executive Council in their respective Regions;

- (ii) To consider matters brought to their attention by the Executive Council;
 - (iii) To discuss matters of general interest and to coordinate meteorological and related activities in their respective Regions;
 - (iv) To make recommendations to Congress and the Executive Council on matters within the purposes of the Organization;
 - (v) To perform such other functions as may be conferred on them by Congress;
- (e) Each regional association shall elect its president and vice-president.

PART IX

Technical commissions

ARTICLE 19

(a) Commissions consisting of technical experts may be established by Congress to study and make recommendations to Congress and the Executive Council on any subject within the purpose of the Organization;

(b) Members of the Organization have the right to be represented on the technical commissions;

(c) Each technical commission shall elect its president and vice-president;

(d) Presidents of technical commissions may participate without vote in the meetings of Congress and of the Executive Council.

PART X

The Secretariat

ARTICLE 20

The permanent Secretariat of the Organization shall be composed of a Secretary-General and such technical and clerical staff as may be required for the work of the Organization.

ARTICLE 21

(a) The Secretary-General shall be appointed by Congress on such terms as Congress may approve;

(b) The staff of the Secretariat shall be appointed by the Secretary-General with the approval of the Executive Council in accordance with regulations established by Congress.

ARTICLE 22

(a) The Secretary-General is responsible to the President of the Organization for the technical and administrative work of the Secretariat;

(b) In the performance of their duties, the Secretary-General and the staff shall not seek or receive instructions from any authority external to the Organization. They shall refrain from any action which might reflect on their position as international officers. Each Member of the Organization on its part shall respect the exclusively international character of the responsibilities of the Secretary-General and the staff and not seek to influence them in the discharge of their responsibilities to the Organization.

PART XI

Finances

ARTICLE 23

(a) Congress shall determine the maximum expenditure which may be incurred by the Organization on the basis of the estimates submitted by the Secretary-General after prior examination by, and with the recommendations of, the Executive Council;

(b) Congress shall delegate to the Executive Council such authority as may be required to approve the annual expenditures of the Organization within the limitations determined by Congress.

ARTICLE 24

The expenditures of the Organization shall be apportioned among the Members of the Organization in the proportions determined by Congress.

PART XII

Relations with the United Nations

ARTICLE 25

The Organization shall be in relationship to the United Nations pursuant to Article 57 of the Charter of the United Nations. Any agreement concerning such relationship shall require approval by two-thirds of the Members which are States.

PART XIII

Relations with other organizations

ARTICLE 26

(a) The Organization shall establish effective relations and cooperate closely with such other intergovernmental organizations as may be desirable. Any formal agreement entered into with such organizations shall be made by the Executive Council, subject to approval by two-thirds of the Members which are States, either in Congress or by correspondence;

(b) The Organization may on matters within its purposes make suitable arrangements for consultation and cooperation with non-governmental international organizations and, with the consent of the government concerned, with national organizations, governmental or non-governmental;

(c) Subject to approval by two-thirds of the Members which are States, the Organization may take over from any other international organization or agency, the purpose and activities of which lie within the purposes of the Organization, such functions, resources and obligations as may be transferred to the Organization by international agreement or by mutually acceptable arrangements entered into between competent authorities of the respective organizations.

PART XIV

Legal status, privileges and immunities

ARTICLE 27

(a) The Organization shall enjoy in the territory of each Member such legal capacity as may be necessary for the fulfilment of its purposes and for the exercise of its functions;

(b) (i) The Organization shall enjoy in the territory of each Member to which the present Convention applies such privileges and immunities as may be necessary for the fulfilment of its purposes and for the exercise of its functions;

(ii) Representatives of Members, officers and officials of the Organization, as well as members of the Executive Council, shall similarly enjoy such privileges and immunities as are necessary for the independent exercise of their functions in connection with the Organization;

(c) In the territory of any Member which is a State and which has acceded to the Convention on the Privileges and Immunities of the Specialized Agencies adopted by the General Assembly of the United Nations on 21 November 1947, such legal capacity, privileges and immunities shall be those defined in the said Convention.

PART XV

Amendments

ARTICLE 28

(a) The text of any proposed amendment to the present Convention shall be communicated by the Secretary-General to Members of the Organization at least six months in advance of its consideration by Congress;

(b) Amendments to the present Convention involving new obligations for Members shall require approval by Congress, in accordance with the provisions of Article 11 of the present Convention, by a two-thirds majority vote, and shall come into force on acceptance by two-thirds of the Members which are States for each such Member accepting the amendment, and thereafter for each remaining such Member on acceptance by it. Such amendments shall come into force for any Member not responsible for its own international relations upon the acceptance on behalf of such a Member by the Member responsible for the conduct of its international relations;

(c) Other amendments shall come into force upon approval by two-thirds of the Members which are States.

PART XVI

Interpretation and disputes

ARTICLE 29

Any question or dispute concerning the interpretation or application of the present Convention which is not settled by negotiation or by Congress shall be referred to an independent arbitrator appointed by the President of the International Court of Justice, unless the parties concerned agree on another mode of settlement.

PART XVII

Withdrawal

ARTICLE 30

(a) Any Member may withdraw from the Organization on twelve months' notice in writing given by it to the Secretary-General of the Organization, who shall at once inform all the Members of the Organization of such notice of withdrawal;

(b) Any Member of the Organization not responsible for its own international relations may be withdrawn from the Organization on twelve months' notice in writing given by the Member or other authority responsible for its international relations to the Secretary-General of the Organization, who shall at once inform all the Members of the Organization of such notice of withdrawal.

PART XVIIISuspension*ARTICLE 31

If any Member fails to meet its financial obligations to the Organization or otherwise fails in its obligations under the present Convention, Congress may by resolution suspend it from exercising its rights and enjoying privileges as a Member of the Organization until it has met such financial or other obligations.

PART XIXRatification and accession*ARTICLE 32

The present Convention shall be ratified by the signatory States and the instruments of ratification shall be deposited with the Government of the United States of America, which will notify each signatory and acceding State of the date of deposit thereof.

ARTICLE 33

Subject to the provisions of Article 3 of the present Convention, accession shall be effected by the deposit of an instrument of accession with the Government of the United States of America, which shall notify each Member of the Organization thereof.

ARTICLE 34

Subject to the provisions of Article 3 of the present Convention:

(a) Any contracting State may declare that its ratification of, or accession to, the present Convention includes any territory or group of territories for the international relations of which it is responsible;

(b) The present Convention may at any time thereafter be applied to any such territory or group of territories upon a notification in writing to the Government of the United States of America and the present Convention shall apply to the territory or group of territories on the date of the receipt of the notification by the Government of the United States of America, which will notify each signatory and acceding State thereof;

(c) The United Nations may apply the present Convention to any trust territory or group of trust territories for which it is the administering authority. The Government of the United States of America will notify all signatory and acceding States of any such application.

PART XX

Entry into force

ARTICLE 35

The present Convention shall come into force on the thirtieth day after the date of the deposit of the thirtieth instrument of ratification or accession. The present Convention shall come into force for each State ratifying or acceding after that date on the thirtieth day after the deposit of its instrument of ratification or accession.

The present Convention shall bear the date on which it is opened for signature and shall remain open for signature for a period of one hundred and twenty days thereafter.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF the undersigned, being duly authorized by their respective governments, have signed the present Convention.

DONE at Washington this eleventh day of October 1947, in the English and French languages, each equally authentic, the original of which shall be deposited in the archives of the Government of the United States of America. The Government of the United States of America shall transmit certified copies thereof to all the signatory and acceding States.

I. General

Introduction

REGULATION 1

These General Regulations (hereinafter referred to as “Regulations”) are adopted in application of Article 8 (d) of the Convention of the World Meteorological Organization and are subject to the provision of that Convention. In the event of any conflict between any provision of these Regulations and any provision of the Convention, the Convention shall prevail.

REGULATION 2

- (a) These Regulations may be amended by Congress;
- (b) Decisions of Congress relating to matters covered by these Regulations shall be incorporated therein;
- (c) (i) If, between sessions of Congress, a Member or a constituent body (other than the Executive Council) proposes an amendment to these Regulations, the Secretary-General shall submit such a proposal immediately to the members of the Executive Council;

(ii) If the Executive Council decides that the matter under consideration is of an urgent character, the proposal shall be communicated by the Secretary-General to all Members for a vote by correspondence as described in Regulations 48–61. In other cases the proposals shall be submitted by the Secretary-General to Congress;
- (d) The procedure described in (c) (ii) above shall also apply in the case of amendments proposed by the Executive Council;
- (e) The Secretary-General may also propose amendments. Such proposals shall be submitted to the Executive Council for its consideration;
- (f) Any question or dispute concerning the interpretation or application of these Regulations which occurs between sessions of Congress within the other constituent bodies shall be submitted to the Executive Council for decision. Such decisions shall be issued in the form of statements and shall be considered as directives which shall be reviewed by Congress at its next session;

(g) Any amendments proposed to these Regulations (other than those arising out of amendments to the Convention) submitted by Members or by constituent bodies should be communicated to all Members at least three months before they are submitted to Congress.

REGULATION 3

(a) Each constituent body shall use the rules of procedure adopted by the Executive Council and may exceptionally adopt for its internal use additional rules on the understanding that these rules are not at variance with the Convention, these Regulations and Rules of Procedure;

(b) The presidents of the associations and the commissions shall inform the Executive Council of any additional rules adopted by these bodies and state at the same time the reasons for their adoption.

Membership of the Organization

REGULATION 4

Any application for membership under paragraphs (c) and (e) of Article 3 of the Convention submitted to the Secretary-General shall include a statement certifying that the State, territory or group of territories has or maintains a Meteorological or Hydrometeorological Service.

Permanent Representatives of Members

REGULATION 5

(a) Each Member shall designate by written notification to the Secretary-General a Permanent Representative who should be the Director of the Meteorological or Hydrometeorological Service to act on technical matters for the Member between sessions of Congress. Subject to the approval of their respective governments, Permanent Representatives should be the normal channel of communications between the Organization and their respective countries and shall maintain contact with the competent authorities, governmental or non-governmental, of their own countries on matters concerning the work of the Organization;

(b) Each Member shall appoint, in consultation with the Permanent Representative, a Hydrological Adviser who preferably should be the Director of the respective National Hydrological Service or other national hydrological agency. The Member shall notify the Secretary-General of such appointment. The Hydrological Adviser should be consulted by and advise the Permanent Representative with respect to operational hydrology and its application to water management.

REGULATION 6

The relations between the United Nations and the World Meteorological Organization shall be governed by the agreement concluded between the two organizations. The United Nations shall be invited to send representatives to any session of any constituent body in accordance with the stipulations on reciprocal representation stated in the agreement with the United Nations.

Officers

REGULATION 7

Except as provided by Article 4 (b) of the Convention, no person shall be entitled to act at the same time as president or vice-president of more than one of the constituent bodies; or as president of a constituent body and an elected member of the Executive Council.

REGULATION 8

The duties of the President of the Organization shall be:

(1) To preside over the sessions of Congress and sessions of the Executive Council held during the term of office;

(2) To guide and coordinate the activities of the Organization and its various bodies as specified in Article 4 (a), (1) to (4) inclusive of the Convention;

(3) To issue directives to the Secretary-General with respect to the fulfilment of the duties;

(4) To carry out such specific duties as are prescribed by decisions of Congress, the Executive Council and by the Regulations of the Organization;

(5) Notwithstanding the provisions of Regulation 59, to take action, on behalf of the Executive Council, after consultation with the presidents of the commissions concerned and members of the Executive Council and in accordance with the relevant rules of procedure of the Executive Council, on any recommendation of an association or a commission, when considered that such action, in the interest of the Organization, cannot be deferred until the next session of the Executive Council or until the Executive Council can complete a vote by correspondence;

(6) To furnish to each ordinary session of Congress and of the Executive Council the report on the activities of the Organization and its constituent bodies, matters which are required to be reported under the provisions (7) and (8) of this Regulation and other matters affecting the Organization or its constituent bodies;

(7) To include, in the report to the Executive Council, particulars of any case which has occurred since the previous session of the Executive Council in which it was necessary:

(a) To take action or adopt a decision or directive, under the provisions of (2) and (3) of this Regulation, which was not within the ambit of previous decisions by Congress or the Executive Council or the Regulations of the Organization; or

(b) To take action under (5) of this Regulation, in order that the Executive Council may confirm such action, decision or directive, failing which the action, decision or directive shall be considered as rescinded;

(8) If Congress convenes before a case has been reported to a session of the Executive Council, in accordance with (7) of this Regulation, to include particulars of the case in the report made to Congress in accordance with (6) of this Regulation;

(9) To maintain files of the official correspondence as President of the Organization and the Executive Council and to send copies of this correspondence to the Secretary-General.

REGULATION 9

If the President or a Vice-President of the Organization or of an association or an elected member of the Executive Council ceases to be a Director of a Meteorological or Hydrometeorological Service of a Member -they shall cease to hold such office.

REGULATION 10

The term of office of the President and Vice-Presidents of the Organization shall be from the end of one ordinary session to the end of the succeeding ordinary session of Congress. The term of office of the president and vice-president(s) of an association or a commission shall be from the first ordinary session of the association or the commission following the ordinary session of Congress to the end of the next ordinary session of the association or the commission following the ordinary session of Congress.

However, they shall be eligible for re-election at the end of their term of office provided that, if any officer has already served for a continuous period covering more than one term of the same office, they shall not be eligible for a further term in the same office, unless they have served for less than five years which shall include the period they may have served in an acting capacity under the provisions of Regulations 11, 12 and 13. With regard to the offices of the President and Vice-Presidents of the Organization and of the presidents and vice-presidents of the associations, successive Directors of the same Meteorological or Hydrometeorological Service shall not hold the same office for more than two consecutive terms.

REGULATION 11

If the President of the Organization or of an association or a commission resigns or is not able or eligible to carry out the functions of that office, for any cause, the First Vice-President of the Organization (or the vice-president in the case of an association or a commission) shall serve as Acting President for a period not exceeding the remainder of the term of office of the President. The Vice-President, acting as President, shall have the same powers and duties as the President.

REGULATION 12

If the First Vice-President of the Organization resigns or is not able or eligible to carry out the functions of the office, for any cause, the Second Vice-President of the Organization shall also serve as Acting First

Vice-President of the Organization for a period not exceeding the remainder of the term of office of the First Vice-President.

REGULATION 13

If the Second Vice-President of the Organization resigns or is not able or eligible to carry out the functions of the office, for any cause, the Third Vice-President of the Organization shall also serve as Acting Second Vice-President of the Organization for a period not exceeding the remainder of the term of office of the Second Vice-President.

REGULATION 14

If the Third Vice-President of the Organization resigns or is not able or eligible to carry out the functions of the office, for any cause, the Executive Council shall designate an Acting Third Vice-President from amongst elected members of Executive Council in accordance with the provisions of Article 13 (c) of the Convention of WMO. The Acting Third Vice-President shall serve for a period not exceeding the remainder of the term of office of the officer who is being replaced.

REGULATION 15

(a) If the office of the president of an association or commission becomes vacant and cannot be filled by application of Regulation 11, the President of the Organization shall arrange for an election by correspondence of the president of the association or the commission, provided that the vacancy is notified to the Secretary-General at least 130 days before the next ordinary session of the body concerned;

(b) Until the president of the association or commission is elected, the President of the Organization shall assume the responsibility of acting president of that body;

(c) If the office of the vice-president of an association or commission becomes vacant, the president of the association or the commission shall arrange for the election of the vice-president of that body if the vacancy is notified to the Secretary-General at least 130 days before the next ordinary session of the body concerned. This vice-president shall be elected to serve for a period not exceeding the term of office of the officer who is being replaced;

(d) If the office of the president of an association or a commission becomes vacant during the process of an election of a vice-president of the body concerned by correspondence, the President of the Organization shall assume the responsibilities of acting president of that body until the vice-president has been elected who will serve as acting president of that body in accordance with Regulation 11.

Members of the Executive Council

REGULATION 16

Article 13 of the Convention establishing the composition of the Executive Council is clarified by the present Regulation on the distribution of the seats in the Executive Council as follows: Region I (Africa): 9; Region II (Asia): 6; Region III (South America): 4; Region IV (North America, Central America and the Caribbean): 5; Region V (South-West Pacific): 4; and Region VI (Europe): 9.

Sessions of constituent bodies

REGULATION 17

Whenever an invitation is extended for holding a session of any constituent body elsewhere than at the location of the Secretariat, such invitation shall be considered only if the Member in whose territory it is proposed to hold such session:

(a) Has ratified without reservation the Convention on the Privileges and Immunities of the Specialized Agencies including the annex relating to the Organization; or

(b) Gives assurance that all delegates, representatives, experts, observers or other individuals, entitled under the Convention or any regulation of the Organization to attend such meeting, shall enjoy these privileges and immunities “necessary for the independent exercise of their functions in connection with the Organization” as provided in the Convention.

The procedures which apply to the acceptance of such invitations are specified in Annex I.

REGULATION 18

(a) With a view to securing the widest possible technical representation, the president of any constituent body may invite, through the Secretary-General, any expert or any representative of an organization to participate as observer at a session or meeting of the constituent body concerned;

(b) In the case of an invitation to an expert, not previously designated, to attend a session or meeting of a constituent body, the invitation shall require the prior concurrence of the Permanent Representative of the Member where the expert lives. In the case of an invitation to an expert from the United Nations or another international organization with which the Organization has concluded arrangements or agreements, the invitation shall require the prior concurrence of the respective organization.

REGULATION 19

Countries maintaining Meteorological or Hydrometeorological Services which are not Members of the Organization but which are Members of the United Nations or which have been accorded observer status by the United Nations shall be invited to send observers to sessions of Congress, commissions and those associations within the geographical limits of which they are located. Other non-Member countries of the Organization maintaining Meteorological or Hydrometeorological Services shall be similarly invited to sessions of Congress, subject to the prior approval of the Members of the Organization and, subject to the same approval, to intermediate sessions of associations and commissions.

REGULATION 20

(a) Prior to a session of a constituent body other than the Executive Council, each Member concerned shall communicate to the Secretary-General the names of the persons composing its delegation to that body, indicating which of these shall be regarded as its principal delegate;

(b) Besides this communication, a letter giving these particulars and otherwise conforming with the provisions of the Convention and of these Regulations and signed by, or on behalf of, an appropriate governmental authority of the Member shall be sent to the Secretary-General or handed to the representative at the session and shall be regarded as appropriate credentials for the participation of the individuals named therein in the session. For technical commission sessions, the Secretary-General may accept the credentials of persons who are part of the Member's delegation provided that those credentials have been signed by the Member's Permanent Representative (in consultation with the Member's Hydrological Adviser in the case of hydrological experts);

(c) The same procedure shall apply as regards the credentials of observers representing non-Member countries;

(d) The credentials of observers representing international organizations shall be signed by the competent authority of the organization concerned.

REGULATION 21

Any individual to whose admission a principal delegate has made objection shall be seated provisionally with the same rights as other delegates, members or observers until the report on credentials has been considered and the constituent body has given its decision.

Committees in sessions

(a) Each constituent body, except the Executive Council, may establish a Credentials Committee. This committee shall examine the credentials of delegates and observers as well as any observation which may be submitted to it by the representative of the Secretary-General. It shall report thereon as soon as possible to the constituent body. Final decisions regarding credentials shall rest with the constituent body;

(b) In the case of associations and commissions, a list of the individuals present and the capacities in which they are attending the session shall be prepared by the representative of the Secretary-General, on the basis of examination of credentials. This list, announced by the president of the constituent body, if unanimously accepted, shall constitute the report on credentials adopted by the constituent body. The list shall be updated, as required, by the representative of the Secretary-General and adopted by the constituent body. If an objection is raised by a principal delegate to any name on the list, a Credentials Committee shall be established.

REGULATION 23

Any individual whose credentials are found not to comply with the provisions of these Regulations shall be excluded from participation in the session.

REGULATION 24

Each constituent body may establish for the duration of its session committees as it deems necessary. The terms of reference of such committees shall be prescribed by the body establishing it and shall be within the agenda of the session. The chair of each committee will be designated or elected by the committee, as decided by the plenary.

At each session of a constituent body holding elections, a Nomination Committee shall be established to prepare and submit to the body a list of nominees for each office or place for which an election is to be held. Any candidatures proposed and maintained in that committee by a minority shall be included in the list of nominees. In Congress the Nomination Committee shall consist of 12 principal delegates, each Region being represented.

REGULATION 26

In each session of Congress an open committee of Congress, entitled the WMO Hydrological Assembly, shall be convened. It should be attended as a rule by the Hydrological Advisers of Members (in accordance with Regulation 5 (b)) and by other representatives of National Hydrological Services or other national hydrological agencies as designated by Members.

Subsidiary bodies

REGULATION 27

Any constituent or additional body established according to Article 8 (h) of the Convention may establish subsidiary bodies to act during a prescribed period of time until the next session of that constituent or additional body. The terms of reference of such subsidiary bodies shall be established by the constituent or additional body and shall be within the terms of reference of that body.

REGULATION 28

A member of a subsidiary body selected by a constituent or additional body or its president (Chair) may be replaced on the subsidiary body only by decision of that constituent or additional body, except that, in case of urgency, the president (Chair) of the parent body may do so. A member of a subsidiary body designated by a Member of the Organization may be replaced only by decision of that Member. A member of a subsidiary body designated by an international organization may be replaced only by decision of that organization.

REGULATION 29

The president of the constituent body (Chair of additional body), after consultation with the Secretary-General in any case in which financial expenses for the Organization may be involved, may, at the request of the subsidiary body, invite technical experts to participate in the work of the subsidiary body.

REGULATION 30

An invitation to any technical expert in accordance with Regulations 28 or 29 to participate in the work of a subsidiary body shall be in accordance with Regulation 143. An invitation to any other individual to participate in the work of a subsidiary body shall require the prior concurrence of the Permanent Representative of the Member in which the individual lives, in consultations with the Hydrological Adviser (as relates to experts in hydrology), or of the competent authority of the United Nations or another international organization in which the individual works and with which the Organization has concluded arrangements or agreements. Invitations to individuals from these organizations shall be validated by the Secretariat.

REGULATION 31

Expenses of attendance of members of subsidiary bodies of constituent and additional bodies at sessions of these bodies shall normally be borne by the Members or the international organization to which those members belong. However, participation in a session of a subsidiary body may be financed by the Organization by decision of Congress or the Executive Council, provided that the questions to be dealt with:

- (a) Are of general interest to the Organization;
- (b) Are such as to necessitate the services of individual experts specially chosen in view of their specialized knowledge or to represent a regional interest rather than the interest of a Member or an international organization;
- (c) Are such that they cannot be solved by correspondence; and
- (d) Are considered by Congress or the Executive Council as having high priority.

REGULATION 32

Any constituent or additional body may recommend the establishment of joint subsidiary bodies between itself and one or more other bodies. Such bodies shall only be established, and their terms of reference and number of members be determined, by Congress or the Executive Council and shall normally serve during a prescribed period of time until the next session of Congress.

REGULATION 33

Documents, reports and recommendations of subsidiary bodies shall have no status within the Organization until they have been approved by the responsible constituent or additional body. In case of joint subsidiary bodies the recommendations must be concurred with the presidents of the constituent bodies (Chairs of additional bodies) concerned before being submitted to the designated constituent or additional body.

REGULATION 34

In the case of a recommendation made by a subsidiary body between sessions of the responsible constituent or additional body, either in a session or by correspondence, the president of that constituent body (Chair of additional body) may, as an exceptional measure, approve the recommendation on behalf of the constituent or additional body when the matter is considered urgent, and does not appear to imply new obligations for Members. The president (Chair) may then submit this recommendation for adoption by the Executive Council or to the President of the Organization for action in accordance with Regulation 8 (5).

REGULATION 35

Notwithstanding Regulation 27, a subsidiary body may be dissolved at any time by the constituent or additional body that established it if that body considers that it has completed its task or is not able to proceed further.

Joint sessions of constituent bodies

REGULATION 36

A joint session of two or more constituent bodies may be held when considered necessary. The presidents of the bodies concerned shall act as co-conveners of the joint session.

Representation at the sessions or on relevant bodies of other international organizations

REGULATION 37

On receipt of an invitation for the Organization to be represented at a session of another international organization or one of its constituent bodies, the Secretary-General shall decide, on the basis of general guidance from the Executive Council and on budgetary and other considerations, whether the invitation shall be accepted and, if so, who should represent the Organization. The Secretary-General should consult, whenever practicable, the President of the Organization and the president of the association or the commission most directly concerned, if any, on the choice of the WMO representative.

REGULATION 38

The representative or representatives of the Organization at any such session shall arrange for the Secretary-General to receive a report on the outcome of the session, with particular reference to aspects of interest to the Organization.

REGULATION 39

The nomination of representatives of the Organization to serve on relevant bodies of other international organizations shall be made by the Secretary-General after consultation with the President of the Organization and the president of the association or commission most directly concerned, if any. Such consultations are not required for nomination of representatives to serve on bodies at the purely secretariat level within the United Nations system of organizations.

Voting at sessions

REGULATION 40

Each Member belonging to or represented in a constituent body shall have one vote. The principal delegate of a Member shall have the right to vote or to designate any other member of the same delegation to vote on their behalf. No person shall have more than one vote in sessions of constituent bodies. Voting shall be by paper or electronic.

REGULATION 41

For the purposes of the Convention and these Regulations the expression “votes for and against” shall mean affirmative and negative votes only and shall not include abstentions or blank or invalid votes.

REGULATION 42

Voting in a constituent body shall normally be by standing, by a show of hands or by electronic voting.

REGULATION 43

(a) Except in the case of the Executive Council, any delegation present may request a roll-call, which shall then be taken in the alphabetical order of the names of the Members of the Organization in a working language of the session of a constituent body decided by the presiding officer;

(b) The vote or abstention of each Member shall be included in the minutes of the meeting or in a report to a plenary meeting if no minutes are prepared at plenary meetings.

REGULATION 44

Upon demand of two or more delegations present at a meeting, voting shall be by secret ballot. Voting by secret ballot has preference to roll-call, if both have been requested.

REGULATION 45

In all voting by secret ballot, two tellers selected from among the delegates present shall be appointed to count the votes. The votes shall be counted in the presence of the constituent body immediately following the vote. The voting slips or electronic votes shall be destroyed after the announcement of the result by the presiding officer and its acceptance by the meeting.

REGULATION 46

In the case of votes made by secret ballot, the number of votes for and against and the number of abstentions shall be recorded in the minutes, or in a report to a plenary meeting, if no minutes are prepared at plenary meetings.

REGULATION 47

(a) Except as provided for in the Convention and these Regulations, all decisions in a constituent body shall be determined by a simple majority of the votes cast for and against, in accordance with Regulation 41. If an equal number of votes are cast for and against a proposal, the proposal shall be regarded as lost;

(b) For elections, the simple majority shall be the next integer immediately above the half of the voting slips or electronic votes received, excluding abstentions and blank or invalid votes.

Voting by correspondence

REGULATION 48

Between sessions any question within the terms of reference of a constituent body which, in the opinion of its president, could be solved by correspondence, may be submitted to a vote by correspondence subject to the following provisions:

(a) A vote by correspondence by Members of the Organization, when Congress is not in session, shall be taken only on matters which are not reserved in the Convention for decision by Congress in session and Articles 11 and 12 of the Convention shall apply in any such vote by correspondence;

(b) In a vote by correspondence by members of the Executive Council, Article 16 of the Convention shall apply;

(c) In a vote by correspondence, upon a proposal before a commission, the votes shall be cast by the Permanent Representatives of the Members represented on the commission.

REGULATION 49

Votes by correspondence, other than an election, shall be preceded by an exchange of opinion in the following cases:

(a) If the president of the constituent body so decides;

(b) If any of those entitled to vote requests such action within 30 days of the date of dispatch of the request to vote;

(c) If the question put to the vote falls within one of the following categories:

- (i) Questions leading to changes in the Technical Regulations;
- (ii) Questions affecting the Organization's programme;
- (iii) Questions affecting the relations between the Organization and another intergovernmental body or an organization with which WMO has defined its relations;
- (iv) Proposals whose implementation, if they are accepted, would call for extensive or costly action on the part of Members.

In the case of a commission the exchange of opinion shall be between the Members represented on the commission.

REGULATION 50

The president of a constituent body, when requesting opinions in accordance with Regulation 49, shall present any available information for and against the proposal; suggest, whenever appropriate, a date for implementation of the proposal if it is adopted; and indicate a time limit for the receipt of comments on the proposal.

REGULATION 51

(a) If any comments received in response to the action taken in accordance with Regulation 50 specifically request modifications of the proposal circulated by the president of the constituent body, the latter shall initiate a second circular to all Members or members entitled to vote informing them of each of the proposed modifications and other comments and requesting each Member or member to indicate, within 45 days of the date of dispatch of this second circular, whether that Member or member:

- (i) Supports the adoption of the original proposal without change;
- (ii) In the case of each proposed modification, supports or opposes that modification;
- (iii) Prefers that a decision upon the original proposal should be deferred until the next session of the constituent body;

(b) In the light of the replies received the president of the constituent body shall decide whether to proceed with the vote by correspondence or to defer further action until the next session of the constituent body;

(c) If the president of the constituent body decides to proceed with the vote by correspondence, the president shall prepare an appropriate draft resolution or recommendation and shall arrange for the Secretary-General to conduct the vote by correspondence upon it. No proposal or amendment of the draft resolution or recommendation being voted upon shall be receivable from any Member or member until after the close of the ballot.

REGULATION 52

Any proposal submitted to a vote by correspondence shall be arranged so that independent questions are voted on separately.

REGULATION 53

The provisions applicable to a vote by correspondence shall be those in force on the date of dispatch of the request to vote.

REGULATION 54

A vote, in any vote by correspondence, including an election, shall be valid only if the voting slip or electronic vote:

(a) Is received by the Secretary-General not more than 60 days after the date of dispatch of the request to vote;

(b) In the case of Members, the voting slip has been signed on behalf of the Minister for Foreign Affairs of the Member or, in the case of those matters to which the provisions of Regulation 5 apply, by the Permanent Representative of the Member or a person authorized to sign on behalf of the Permanent Representative and designated as such to the Secretary-General.

(c) In the case of Members, the electronic vote is submitted by the Permanent Representative authorized as the normal channel of communication, or the Permanent Representative's designate, to vote.

The Secretary-General shall determine whether a voting slip or electronic vote is valid or not.

REGULATION 55

(a) Except in commissions, the quorum for voting by correspondence within a constituent body shall equal the quorum required for a meeting of that body;

(b) The quorum for voting by correspondence within commissions shall be a majority of the number of Members represented on that commission;

(c) If the number of replies received by the Secretary-General during the 60-day period referred to in Regulation 54 does not reach the quorum required for voting by correspondence, the motion shall be considered as lost.

REGULATION 56

All votes by correspondence, including elections, shall be conducted by the Secretary-General. At least two senior officials of the Secretariat shall be designated by the Secretary-General to check and count the voting slips or electronic votes received. A statement certifying the results of the ballot shall be established and signed by these officials after such a count. The voting slips or results of the electronic voting shall be retained by the Secretary-General for a period of 180 days after the close of the ballot and then destroyed.

REGULATION 57

The president of a constituent body shall cancel a vote by correspondence in any of the following cases:

(a) If the vote was not preceded by an exchange of opinion and a request is received to have an exchange of opinion in accordance with Regulation 49 (b); or

(b) In case of election between sessions, if any of the persons on the final list of candidates withdraws or is no longer eligible for the office.

In these cases, the voting slips or electronic votes received in response to the letter of the request to vote shall be considered null and void.

REGULATION 58

The rules as given in Regulations 44 to 46 and 77 to 91 are not applicable in the case of votes conducted by correspondence.

REGULATION 59

The president of a constituent body may approve a proposal on behalf of that body, without a vote by correspondence, under the following conditions:

(a) When presenting the proposal to the constituent body, the president shall have indicated the intention to do so provided that no objection is expressed;

(b) A period of 90 days from the date of the issue of the circular letter presenting the proposal shall have been allowed for replies;

(c) No objection shall have been received within that 90-day period from any of those entitled to vote.

REGULATION 60

Any decision of a constituent body adopted by a vote by correspondence shall have for all purposes of the Organization the same force, effect and status as if it had been adopted by the constituent body in session, and any provision of the Convention or these Regulations applicable to a decision adopted in session shall be equally applicable to a decision adopted by a vote by correspondence.

REGULATION 61

(a) Except in votes by correspondence by the Executive Council, the result of a vote by correspondence in the form of the numbers of votes cast for and against and the number of abstentions shall be communicated to all Members invited to participate in the vote;

(b) A list showing the votes of individual Members shall be sent to any Member, on request, provided such a request is received within 180 days of the close of the ballot and unless two or more Members invited to participate in the vote have requested, before the voting terminates, that this information not be communicated.

Elections during sessions

REGULATION 62

Elections for all offices and places which a constituent body is required to fill shall be held at an ordinary session of that constituent body at which an election of officers is to be held (in accordance with Regulation 10).

REGULATION 63

Prior to each election for an office, place or group of places, a list of the candidates to be voted upon, comprising the proposals of the Nomination Committee, if any, and nominations from the floor, shall be compiled by the constituent body in session. This list shall include only the names of those persons who are eligible for the office or place(s) for which they are nominated and who have stated that they are willing to be included among the candidates for election.

REGULATION 64

In all elections, voting shall be by secret ballot. In voting, the provisions of Regulations 40, 45 and 46 shall apply. When there is only one candidate, this candidate shall be declared elected without a ballot.

REGULATION 65

A voting slip shall be invalid if it contains more names than the number of seats to be filled, or if it includes the name of any person not appearing in the list of candidates as established by the constituent body in accordance with the provisions of Regulation 63. In a vote by correspondence, an electronic vote shall be invalid if a voting slip is also received from the same Member.

REGULATION 66

In Congress, separate elections shall be held for the offices of President, First Vice-President, Second Vice-President and Third Vice-President of the Organization, in that order. The President and the three Vice- Presidents shall normally belong each to a different Region.

REGULATION 67

In associations and commissions, separate elections shall be held for the offices of president and vice-president, in that order.

REGULATION 68

In Congress, after the election of the President and the Vice-Presidents of the Organization, the remaining places on the Executive Council, other than those of the presidents of the associations, shall be filled in the manner specified in (a) and (b) below. When number of candidates from a Region is equal to the number of seats for a Region according to Regulation 16, these candidates shall be declared elected without a ballot.

(a) A first election consisting of separate elections conducted simultaneously shall be held to fill those places on the Executive Council which need to be filled by candidates from particular Regions in order to satisfy the requirement in accordance with Article 13 (c) (ii) of the Convention that not less than four members of the Executive Council shall come from each Region. The list of candidates for this election shall be confined to the candidates belonging to the Regions which are not yet represented by four members. In this election, separate voting slips or electronic voting shall be used for each Region involved;

(b) A second election consisting of separate elections conducted simultaneously shall be held to fill the remaining places on the Executive Council, on the basis of a list containing the names of candidates from particular Regions in order to satisfy the requirement in accordance with Article 13 (c) (ii) of the Convention and Regulation 16, except those who have been elected under subparagraph (a). In this second election, separate voting slips or electronic voting shall be used for each Region involved. In addition to the provisions of Regulation 65, a voting slip shall be invalid if it contains a number of names greater, for any Region, than the maximum number of seats which remains possible for that Region, in accordance with Article 13 (c) (ii) of the Convention and Regulation 16. A voting slip or electronic vote containing fewer names than the number of places to be filled shall be valid and shall not be regarded as an abstention, provided it contains at least one name.

REGULATION 69

In all elections other than those described in Regulation 68 (b) the candidate who obtains a simple majority as described in Regulation 47 (b) shall be declared elected. If, in the first ballot, no candidate obtains a simple majority, a second ballot, which shall be restricted to the two candidates who obtained the highest numbers of votes in the first ballot, shall be held. However, if any other candidate has obtained the same number of votes in the first ballot as the second candidate, they also shall be included in the list.

For the elections under Regulation 68 (a), this Regulation shall apply separately to each Region involved.

REGULATION 70

In the election described in Regulation 68 (b):

(a) If the number of candidates securing a simple majority exceeds the number of places to be filled, those of such candidates who obtained the highest number of votes (to the extent of the number of places to be filled) shall be declared elected, subject to the provisions of Article 13 (c) (ii) of the Convention and of Regulation 16;

(b) If the number of candidates who obtained a simple majority on the first ballot is less than the number of places to be filled, those who obtained the simple majority shall be declared elected, subject to the provisions of Article 13 (c) (ii) of the Convention and of Regulation 16, and a further ballot shall be held to fill the remaining places;

(c) In this subsequent ballot, the list of candidates shall comprise those not previously elected who secured the highest number of votes in the previous ballot, but the number of candidates in the list shall not be greater than twice the number of places to be filled. However, if any other candidate has obtained in the previous ballot the same number of votes as the last candidate in the list, they also shall be included in the list. The procedures applicable to the results of the first ballot shall be applied to those of the second ballot;

(d) Further similar ballots shall be held as necessary until all places on the Executive Council have been filled.

REGULATION 71

Whenever more than one ballot is necessary in the elections described in Regulation 68 (b) and any of the ballots results in the attainment of a number of seats for a Region which is equal to the maximum possible under the provisions of Article 13 (c) (ii) of the Convention and of Regulation 16, the names of all the remaining candidates from that Region shall be deleted from the list of candidates for the next ballot.

REGULATION 72

If, in a ballot, a decision is not reached between two or more candidates because they have obtained the same number of votes, another ballot shall be held and, if no decision is reached in this new ballot, the decision between those candidates shall be made by drawing lots.

Elections between sessions

REGULATION 73

(a) Elections between ordinary sessions of a constituent body shall take place to fill an office or a place in the body as prescribed in Regulations 14, 15 (a) and 116;

(b) Notwithstanding Regulation 57 (b), the eligibility of candidates for election by correspondence other than those prescribed by Article 6 (a) of the Convention as well as Regulations 135 (a) and 144 shall be that prevailing on the date of dispatch of request to nominate candidates as provided for in Regulation 74;

(c) Notwithstanding the application of Regulation 14, the president of an association or commission may also, in exceptional cases, arrange to hold elections by correspondence for any other office or place in the body in question.

REGULATION 74

When it is decided to hold elections by correspondence, the Secretary-General shall invite those entitled to vote to nominate in advance eligible candidates for the office or place to be filled. The president who requested the election shall decide on the duration of the period, which shall not be less than 30 days, during which nominations of candidates will be received.

REGULATION 75

(a) Before proceeding with the election, the Secretary-General shall ascertain that each person whose name has been submitted is eligible for the office or place to be filled and is willing to be included among the candidates for election. For this purpose, a period of 20 days shall be allocated, after which the final list of candidates shall be established;

(b) When the list of candidates contains only one name, this candidate shall be declared elected.

REGULATION 76

(a) The provisions of Regulations 54, 55, 56, 57 (b), 64, 65, 69 and 72 shall apply mutatis mutandis in the case of elections between sessions;

(b) A second ballot in conformity with Regulation 69, will however not be held if the results of the first ballot are not available at least 180 days before the next ordinary session of the body concerned.

Conduct of business in meetings of constituent bodies

REGULATION 77

The presiding officer may call a speaker to order if the remarks are irrelevant to the subject under discussion. Subject to the provisions of Regulation 79, the presiding officer shall have power to impose a time limit on each speaker.

REGULATION 78

In addition to exercising any power conferred upon him elsewhere in these Regulations, the presiding officer shall open and close the meetings, direct the discussions, ensure the observance of the provisions of the Convention and of the Regulations applicable to the body concerned, accord the right to speak, put questions to the vote and announce decisions. The presiding officer shall have control over the proceedings and the maintenance of order at its meetings. The presiding officer shall rule on points of order and shall have, in particular, the power to propose adjournment or closure of the debates or adjournment or suspension of meetings.

REGULATION 79

(a) A point of order raised by any delegation or member shall be immediately decided by the presiding officer in accordance with the Regulations. A delegation or member may appeal against the ruling of the presiding officer. Discussion on such an appeal shall be limited to the appellant and the presiding officer. If the appeal is maintained it shall be immediately put to the vote and the ruling of the presiding officer shall stand unless that ruling is overruled by the required majority of the delegates or members present and voting;

(b) Neither the delegation or member raising a point of order nor any other delegation or member may speak on the substance of the subject under discussion until the point of order has been determined.

REGULATION 80

During the debate on an item of the agenda, any delegation or member may move motions or amendments to motions on the subject under discussion.

REGULATION 81

Motions shall be debated and voted upon in the order in which they have been proposed, except as otherwise provided.

REGULATION 82

If two or more amendments are moved to a motion or to an amendment, a discussion shall be held and a vote shall be taken first on the amendment furthest removed in substance from the original proposal and then on the amendment next furthest removed until all the amendments maintained have been put to a vote. The presiding officer shall have the power to determine the order of voting on amendments under this rule, subject to Regulation 79.

REGULATION 83

A motion or an amendment which has been moved may be withdrawn by the mover unless an amendment to it is under discussion or has been adopted.

REGULATION 84

Amendments shall be voted on before the motion or amendment to which they refer. When all amendments have been disposed of, the original proposal, as modified by adopted amendments, shall be voted on.

REGULATION 85

A delegation or member may move that parts of a proposal, document or amendment shall be voted on separately. If objection is made to the request for division, the motion shall be voted upon. Permission to speak on the motion for division shall be given only to two speakers in favour and two speakers against. If the motion for division is carried, those parts of the proposal, document or amendment which are subsequently approved individually shall finally be put to the vote as a whole. If all operative parts of the proposal, document or amendment have been rejected, the proposal, document or amendment shall be considered to have been rejected as a whole.

REGULATION 86

A delegation or a member may move at any time the suspension or the adjournment of the meeting. Such a motion shall not be debated, but shall immediately be put to a vote, subject to Regulation 89.

REGULATION 87

During the discussion of any matter, a delegation or a member may move the adjournment of the debate to a specified time. Such motions shall not be debated, but shall immediately be put to a vote, subject to Regulation 89.

REGULATION 88

A delegation or a member may at any time move the closure of the debate, whether or not any other delegate or member has signified the wish to speak. Permission to speak on the closure of the debate may be accorded to not more than two speakers both opposing the closure, after which the motion shall be immediately put to the vote, subject to Regulation 89.

REGULATION 89

Subject to the provisions of Regulation 79 concerning a point of order, the following motions shall have precedence in the following order over all other proposals or motions before the meeting:

- (a) To suspend the meeting;
- (b) To adjourn the meeting;
- (c) To adjourn the debate on the item under discussion;
- (d) For the closure of the debate on the item under discussion.

REGULATION 90

After the presiding officer has announced that the voting has commenced, no one may interrupt the voting, except on a point of order concerning the manner of conducting the vote. The presiding officer may permit the delegations or members to explain their vote, either before or after the count, except in cases where a secret ballot is held. The presiding officer shall not permit the movers to explain their vote.

REGULATION 91

An observer may participate in a debate on a subject of common interest to the Organization and the Member or the organization which the observer represents. No motion or amendment to a motion by an observer shall be considered unless it is endorsed by a delegation or a Member.

Records and documentsREGULATION 92

Any document shall be made available in sufficient time, before the opening of the plenary meeting at which it will be discussed. The time should be specified by the constituent body concerned.

REGULATION 93

Other international organizations with which the Organization has concluded arrangements or agreements may submit documents to sessions of constituent bodies or subsidiary bodies on agenda items of direct interest to them within the time fixed for the different bodies. In this case, such documents should be made available to the Secretary-General for circulation in accordance with the Regulations.

REGULATION 94

(a) Any decision of an association or a commission which requires implementation by Members of the association or the commission only, or which concerns only the internal activities of the association or the commission such as its future work programme, the establishment and terms of reference of subsidiary bodies, shall be recorded in the form of a resolution, provided that such a resolution is not in conflict with the provisions of the Convention, the Regulations of the Organization or any previous decision of Congress or the Executive Council;

(b) Any decision of an association or a commission which is intended to convey information, an opinion, or which gives directives to a subsidiary body (other than its terms of reference), to the officers of the association or the commission or to any individual who has been designated to undertake a task, shall be recorded in the form of a decision;

(c) Any decision of an association or a commission on any other matter, including proposals for actions by Members of the Organization, proposals which require reconsideration or modification of a previous decision of Congress or the Executive Council, proposals for Secretariat action and proposals intended for consideration by another association or a commission or by a body outside the Organization, shall be recorded only as a recommendation to Congress or the Executive Council.

REGULATION 95

(a) After the sessions of a constituent body the resolutions, decisions and recommendations shall be recorded in the final report of the session and published by the Secretariat. Information documents and statements shall also be included in the final report;

(b) Summarized minutes of the discussion at plenary meetings of constituent bodies shall be prepared by the Secretariat only where there is a specific request from the plenary;

(c) Audio recordings of plenary meetings shall be made and retained for record purposes.

Languages

REGULATION 96

The official languages of the Organization shall be Arabic, Chinese, English, French, Russian and Spanish.

REGULATION 97

All official languages shall be working languages at Congress and Executive Council. Working languages at the Executive Council's committees' sessions shall be determined by the President based on the participation of members. The working languages for sessions of constituent bodies and their subsidiary bodies shall be determined by the Secretary-General, in consultation with the president of that constituent body, among the official languages as appropriate, with regards to working languages of Members or experts participating in the session.

REGULATION 98

The Convention and the Regulations shall be published in all official languages of the Organization. Technical reports and other publications shall be published in those official languages as determined by Congress.

Publicity of meetings

REGULATION 99

The meetings of constituent bodies shall be held in public, unless otherwise decided by the constituent bodies concerned.

Implementation of decisions

REGULATION 100

(a) Decisions concerning changes in the Technical Regulations, together with relevant documents, shall be sent to Members in sufficient time to allow a period of at least nine months between the receipt of these documents and the date of implementation;

(b) For other decisions which require implementation by Members, the corresponding period shall be specified in each case by the constituent body in the light of the nature of the decision and the time which would be needed by Members to implement it. In no case shall this period be less than two months.

REGULATION 101

(a) A Member which is unable to give effect to a resolution containing a technical requirement which has been adopted by Congress, or by the Executive Council on behalf of Congress, and to which the provisions of Article 9 (b) of the Convention and of these Regulations have been specifically stated to apply, shall so inform the Secretary-General in writing within a period of 90 days after the notification of the decision by the latter. The Member concerned must indicate, in its communication to the Secretary-General, whether its inability to give effect to the resolution is provisional or final and state its reasons thereof;

(b) Members shall specifically notify the Secretary-General in writing of their intention to apply the “standard practices” of the Technical Regulations except for those for which they lodge specific deviations. Members shall also inform the Secretary-General, at least three months in advance, of any change in the degree of their implementation of a “standard practice” as previously notified and of the effective date of the change.

II. Congress

Sessions and place of sessions

REGULATION 102

(a) The President of the Organization shall convene ordinary sessions of Congress. Notwithstanding any prior decision of Congress regarding the date and place of its next session, the Executive Council may in case of necessity alter the date or place of that session, or both, and may also convene an extraordinary session of Congress at such time and place as the Executive Council shall determine;

(b) An extraordinary session of Congress shall also be convened within 120 days of receipt by the Secretary-General of requests for such a session from a majority of the Members. The precise date and place of the meeting for the extraordinary session shall be determined by the Executive Council.

REGULATION 103

Arrangements for sessions of Congress shall be the responsibility of the Secretary-General. The Secretary-General should use such assistance as may be provided by the host Member.

REGULATION 104

(a) Notification of ordinary sessions of Congress shall be made to Members and to the United Nations at least nine months before the opening meeting of the session;

(b) Notification of an extraordinary session of Congress shall be made at least 90 days before the opening meeting of the session.

REGULATION 105

The presidents of all commissions shall be invited to attend each session of Congress, the cost of their transportation and subsistence, for necessary period, to be borne by the Organization.

REGULATION 106

(a) For all ordinary sessions of Congress, the notification shall be accompanied by the provisional agenda and an explanatory memorandum. The documents shall be distributed as soon as possible, and preferably not later than 30 days before the opening of the session;

(b) The agenda of a session and its explanatory memorandum shall also be sent to the presidents of commissions and to any invited international organizations.

REGULATION 107

The provisions of Regulation 106 shall also apply to extraordinary sessions.

REGULATION 108

Any Member, the United Nations and all other international organizations with which the Organization has concluded arrangements or agreements may propose the addition of items to the provisional agenda before the opening of the session; explanatory memoranda summarizing the problems in relation to these additional items shall accompany such proposals and be distributed by the Secretariat to all Members, to presidents of commissions and to the United Nations. Documents on items on the provisional agenda submitted by Members shall be similarly distributed by the Secretariat.

REGULATION 109

The provisional agenda for an ordinary session of Congress shall be prepared by the Executive Council and shall normally include:

- (1) Adoption of the agenda;
- (2) Report by the President of the Organization, the Secretary-General and other reports;
- (3) Strategic and operational plans and budget;

- (4) Constituent body structures;
- (5) Applications for membership, if any;
- (6) General, legal, policy, regulatory, financial and administrative matters;
- (7) Items submitted by Members of the Organization;
- (8) Election of President and Vice-Presidents of the Organization;
- (9) Election of members of the Executive Council;
- (10) Appointment of the Secretary-General;
- (11) Review of previous Congress resolutions;
- (12) Other items decided by Congress.

REGULATION 110

The agenda for an extraordinary session of Congress shall contain only the items for which the session was convened.

REGULATION 111

The provisional agenda shall be submitted for approval by Congress as soon as possible after the opening of the session. The agenda may be amended by Congress at any time.

III. Executive Council

Introduction

REGULATION 112

A Member which belongs to more than one association shall, for the purposes of Article 13 of the Convention, normally be regarded as coming from the Region in which the headquarters of its Meteorological Service is located. Such a Member may, however, for the purposes of Article 13, select another Region to which it belongs, in which the greater part of its territory lies. Any other choice of Region shall require the approval of Congress. In all cases, the choice of the Region must be announced before the elections covered by Article 8 (j) of the Convention begin, and such choice may not be changed during the session.

REGULATION 113

If the President of the Executive Council cannot attend a session, the President shall be entitled to send an observer, who will have the same rights as an alternate to an elected member of the Council. The same shall apply to the Vice-Presidents.

REGULATION 114

If the president of an association is unable to be present at a session of the Executive Council, the vice-president should attend as an alternate; if both officers are unable to attend, the president of the association should wherever possible select a Director of a Meteorological or Hydrometeorological Service in the Region to attend as alternate. The alternate for the president of an association shall have the same rights and privileges in the Executive Council as the president would have if present.

REGULATION 115

Alternates of the Directors specified in Article 13 (c) of the Convention shall be members of the Meteorological or Hydrometeorological Services of Members coming from the same Regions as the Directors whom they represent.

REGULATION 116

When a vacancy among the members elected in accordance with Article 13 (c) of the Convention occurs in the Executive Council between sessions of Congress, an acting member shall be designated by the Executive Council in conformity with the provisions of that article and of Regulation 16. The acting member shall serve until the closure of the next ordinary session of Congress. If, however, the vacating member is the president of an association, the acting president of the association shall serve until the election of a new president of the association concerned.

REGULATION 117

Between sessions of the Executive Council the President shall consult the members of the Executive Council upon important questions before taking any decisions.

REGULATION 118

Provided the conditions of Regulation 94 (c) have been satisfied, the Executive Council may adopt resolutions arising out of recommendations of associations and commissions, in accordance with Article 14 (c) or in application of the last paragraph of that article of the Convention.

Sessions

REGULATION 119

The sessions of the Executive Council shall be held at the location of the Secretariat unless the Executive Council decides otherwise.

REGULATION 120

Arrangements for sessions of the Executive Council shall be the responsibility of the Secretary-General with such assistance as may be provided by the host Member.

REGULATION 121

(a) Notification of ordinary sessions of the Executive Council shall be made at least 120 days before the opening meeting of the session to members of the Executive Council and to the United Nations;

(b) Notification of an extraordinary session of the Executive Council shall be made at least 60 days before the opening of the session.

REGULATION 122

(a) For all ordinary sessions of the Executive Council, the notification shall be accompanied by the provisional agenda and its explanatory memorandum;

(b) The provisional agenda of a session and its explanatory memorandum shall also be made available with the same advance notice as provided for in Regulation 121 to the presidents of commissions and to those inter-national organizations with which the Organization has concluded arrangements or agreements providing for representation at sessions of the Executive Council. The documents shall be distributed as soon as possible, and preferably not later than 45 days before the opening of the session.

REGULATION 123

The provisions of Regulation 122 shall also apply to extraordinary sessions.

REGULATION 124

Any member of the Executive Council may be accompanied by an alternate and advisers; alternates and advisers may be permitted to address the Council.

REGULATION 125

(a) In accordance with Article 19 (d) of the Convention, the presidents of commissions should participate in sessions of the Executive Council; the cost of travel and subsistence, for an appropriate period, shall be met by the Organization;

(b) Hydrological Advisers to presidents of associations should be invited to attend the sessions of the Executive Council; the cost of travel and subsistence, for an appropriate period, shall be met by the Organization.

REGULATION 126

The provisional agenda for an ordinary session of the Executive Council shall be prepared by the President of the Organization in consultation with the Secretary-General and should normally include:

- (1) Adoption of the agenda;
- (2) Reports by the President of the Organization, the Secretary-General, and other reports;
- (3) Implementation of Congress decisions;
- (4) Strategic and operational planning;
- (5) Budget for the next biennium;
- (6) General, legal, policy, regulatory, and administrative matters, including the reports of the oversight bodies;
- (7) Review of previous resolutions of the Executive Council.

The order in which these items are to be discussed shall be determined by the President and submitted to the Executive Council for approval.

The provisional agenda of an ordinary session of the Executive Council directly following an ordinary session of Congress shall contain only those matters requiring its immediate attention.

REGULATION 127

The agenda of an extraordinary session of the Executive Council shall contain only those matters for which the session was convened.

REGULATION 128

The provisional agenda shall be submitted for approval at the opening meeting. In the course of the session the agenda may be amended at any time.

REGULATION 129

If a quorum, according to Article 17 of the Convention, is not obtained at a session, the decisions adopted by a two-thirds majority of those members present shall be referred by correspondence to all members of the Executive Council. Any such decision shall be considered as a decision of the Executive Council only when it obtains approval by two thirds of the votes cast for and against within 60 days after it has been sent to the members, provided that more than half the members of the Executive Council have participated in the vote.

IV. Regional associations

Introduction

REGULATION 130

The associations of the Organization and their general terms of reference shall be those specified in Annex II to these Regulations. Each association shall be responsible for carrying out the functions specified in Article 18 (d) of the Convention within the area allotted to that association in Annex II.

Membership

REGULATION 131

For the purposes of Article 18 (a) of the Convention, a Member of the Organization has the right to belong to an association if the Member is exclusively responsible, technically and financially, for the maintenance of a network of meteorological or hydrological stations lying in or extending into the geographical limits of the Region concerned, provided that such stations are situated on the territory of the Member.

REGULATION 132

(a) The Secretary-General shall invite new Members of the Organization to declare the associations of which they consider themselves to be Members under the conditions of Article 18 (a) of the Convention.

(b) The Secretary-General shall report to the Executive Council, if necessary, on any difficulties that arise.

(c) Any question or dispute concerning membership of an association shall be referred to Congress or, if the Executive Council so decides, to the Members of the Organization, for decision by a vote by correspondence.

REGULATION 133

The networks within the territory of a Member shall not be represented in the association by more than one delegation which shall represent that Member.

Officers

REGULATION 134

The duties of the president of an association shall be:

(1) To preside over the sessions of the association;

(2) To guide and coordinate the activities of the association and its subsidiary bodies between sessions of the association with the support from Regional Offices and technical departments and in coordination with the technical commissions, the Research Board and other relevant bodies;

(3) To carry out such specific duties as are prescribed by decisions of Congress and the Executive Council and by the Regulations of the Organization;

(4) To ensure that the activities, recommendations and resolutions of the association are in accordance with the provisions of the Convention, decisions of Congress and the Executive Council and the Regulations of the Organization;

(5) To present the views of the association to Congress and to the Executive Council;

(6) To facilitate intra and interregional collaboration and cooperation taking advantage of available forums, groupings and meetings. To arrange for appropriate representation of the association in sessions of other associations, technical commissions and other relevant WMO bodies and engage in high-level political advocacy, visibility and partner engagement, where necessary;

(7) To conduct, either directly or through the Secretary-General on behalf of the association, correspondence on matters relating to the activities of the association.

REGULATION 135

(a) The president and vice-president of an association shall be Directors of Meteorological or Hydrometeorological Services of Members of the Organization belonging to the Region, as specified by Regulation 112;

(b) The president of an association should be assisted by a regional Hydrological Adviser designated at each ordinary session of the association, who should be a representative of a National Hydrological Service responsible for operational hydrology or another national hydrological agency with the following duties:

- (1) To maintain contact, through the president of the association, Permanent Representatives and Hydrological Advisers of Members, with Hydrological Services of Members;
- (2) To collate information on needs, activities, capabilities and compliance with Technical Regulations in the field of operational hydrology in the Region;
- (3) To facilitate adequate representation of hydrological experts in the technical commissions;
- (4) Between sessions of the association, to advise its president on the above matters;

- (5) To perform any other duties entrusted by the president of the association.

Sessions

REGULATION 136

Sessions of an association shall normally be held at a place within its Region or through virtual means, and/or hybrid format, as appropriate.

REGULATION 137

(a) Ordinary sessions of an association shall normally be held at intervals not exceeding four years;

(b) An extraordinary session of an association may be convened by decision of Congress or the Executive Council, if so recommended by the association, either in session or through a vote by correspondence which will be conducted after receiving a request from one third of the Members of the association.

REGULATION 138

(a) The Secretary-General shall draw up a provisional programme of sessions of associations in consultation with the presidents of the associations and the President of the Organization. The coordinated programme of sessions shall be sent to all Members, prior to the ordinary session of Congress, inviting them to act as hosts for one or more sessions of constituent bodies. The date and place of an ordinary or an extraordinary session shall be determined by the president of the association in agreement with the President of the Organization and after consultation with the Secretary-General.

(b) In the case where invitations are received from more than one Member to act as host for the same session of an association, the Secretary-General shall submit the matter to the President of the Organization for decision.

REGULATION 139

A quorum shall consist of a simple majority of Members with voting rights belonging to the association.

REGULATION 140

If a quorum is not obtained at a session, the decisions, other than elections, adopted by a simple majority vote of those Members present shall be referred by correspondence to all Members of the Organization belonging to the association. Any such decision shall be considered a decision of the association only when it has been approved by a simple majority of votes cast for and against within 90 days after it has been sent to the Members.

V. Technical commissionsIntroduction

REGULATION 141

(a) The titles and the general terms of reference of technical commissions shall be as specified in Annex III;

(b) At each regular session of Congress, the technical commissions for the next financial period shall be established in accordance with Article 8 (g) of the Convention. Members shall normally notify the Secretary-General on which commissions they intend to be represented. Such notification should normally be sent within 90 days after closure of the session of Congress and not later than 60 days before the ordinary session of the commission concerned.

REGULATION 142

In conformity with Articles 19 and 26 of the Convention, a technical commission, or other body, may be established jointly with another intergovernmental body of the United Nations system when the proposed terms of reference of the technical commission overlap substantially with the activities of the other body, and such joint sponsorship is deemed to be in the interests of WMO. In such a circumstance of joint sponsorship, the following terminology with respect to technical commissions within these Regulations should be read as indicated:

- (a) Members shall also imply Member States of the co-sponsor;
- (b) Secretary-General shall also imply Executive Head of the co-sponsor;
- (c) Congress and Executive Council shall also imply Governing Bodies of the co-sponsor;

- (d) Secretariat shall also imply the Secretariat of the co-sponsor;
- (e) Organization shall also imply the co-sponsoring body;
- (f) Permanent Representatives of Members of the Organization shall also imply the formal national focal points of the co-sponsor;
- (g) Convention shall also imply the Convention, Statutes or other formal or legal defining document of the co-sponsor;
- (h) Regulations shall also imply the Regulations of the co-sponsor.

Composition

REGULATION 143

Technical commissions shall be composed of technical experts in the fields covered by the terms of reference of the commission. The designation of technical experts to participate in the activities of a technical commission shall be by the Permanent Representative, in consultations with the Hydrological Adviser (as relates to experts in hydrology), of the Member represented on the commission, and by the competent authority of the United Nations or other international organization with which the Organization has concluded arrangements or agreements. After the establishment of the technical commission by Congress, Permanent Representatives and relevant international organizations will be invited to designate experts (update existing designations) according to the required expertise. Designations by Permanent Representatives shall be through the WMO Community Platform. Designations by the organizations shall be through the Secretariat, which should validate designations and enter them into the WMO Community Platform. These experts will form the WMO Expert Network from which the composition of commissions' subsidiary bodies will be drawn.

Officers

REGULATION 144

Only technical experts designated by Members with voting rights in accordance with Regulation 143 shall be eligible for election as president or vice-president(s) of a commission.

REGULATION 145

The duties of the president of a commission shall be:

- (1) To preside over sessions of the commission;
- (2) To guide and coordinate the activities of the commission and its subsidiary bodies between sessions of the commission;
- (3) To carry out such specific duties as are prescribed by decisions of Congress and the Executive Council and by the Regulations of the Organization;
- (4) To ensure that the activities, recommendations and resolutions of the commission are in accordance with the provisions of the Convention, decisions of Congress and the Executive Council and the Regulations of the Organization;
- (5) To report to Congress at its regular sessions on the activities of the commission;
- (6) To present the views of the commission at sessions of the Executive Council which the president may be called upon to attend;
- (7) To conduct, either directly or through the Secretary-General on behalf of the commission, correspondence on matters relating to the activities of the commission;
- (8) To maintain files of official correspondence as president of a commission and to send copies of this correspondence to the Secretary-General.

Sessions

REGULATION 146

- (a) Ordinary sessions of a commission shall normally be held at intervals not exceeding two years;
- (b) An extraordinary session of a commission may be convened for consideration of specific items by decision of Congress or the Executive Council;
- (c) The date and place of a session shall be determined by the Secretary-General in consultation with the president of the commission.

REGULATION 147

The quorum for a meeting shall be a simple majority of the Members with voting rights who are represented on the Commission (as per Regulation 141 (b)).

REGULATION 148

If a quorum is not obtained at a meeting, the decisions, other than elections, adopted by a simple majority vote of those Members present shall be referred by correspondence to Members represented on a commission. Any such decision shall be considered a decision of the commission only when it has been approved by a simple majority of votes cast for and against within 90 days after it has been sent to the Members.

VI. SecretariatProcedures for the appointment of the Secretary-General*REGULATION 149

The appointment of the Secretary-General according to Article 21 of the Convention shall be by a contract approved in each case by Congress.

REGULATION 150

A Secretary-General may serve a maximum of two four-year terms.

REGULATION 151

When in the appointment of the Secretary-General it is necessary to choose between two or more persons the following procedures shall be used:

(a) Each principal delegate, or the alternate, of the Members represented in Congress shall be asked to indicate the preferred candidate by writing the candidate's name on the voting slip or selecting it by electronic vote. All candidates who fail to receive a vote and the candidate who receives the smallest number of votes shall be struck from the list of candidates. In the event of two or more candidates receiving the smallest number of votes, a separate vote of preference shall be taken and the candidate who receives the least number of votes shall be eliminated from the list and the other(s) retained. If in this separate vote of preference more than one candidate receives the smallest number of votes, all these candidates shall be eliminated from the list;

(b) The procedures described in paragraph (a) shall then be repeated with the reduced list of candidates;

(c) This procedure shall continue until one candidate (the “preferred candidate”) remains on the list;

(d) A proposal shall then be submitted to Congress that the preferred candidate be declared appointed. Such a proposal shall be supported by a two-thirds majority of the votes cast for and against in order to be adopted;

(e) If, at any stage during the voting procedure described in paragraphs (a) to (c) above, a candidate receives a two-thirds majority of the votes cast for and against, the candidate shall be declared appointed and no further votes shall be taken;

(f) In the event of the two final candidates in the indication-of-preference procedure receiving the same number of votes, a further vote shall take place;

(g) In the event that the proposal described in paragraph (d) is not supported by a two-thirds majority of the votes cast for and against, a further vote shall take place;

(h) In the event of the further votes described in paragraphs (f) and (g) being indecisive, Congress shall decide whether further voting shall take place, whether a new procedure shall be followed, or whether its decision shall be withheld.

REGULATION 152

In the event of the post of Secretary-General becoming vacant in the interval between two sessions of Congress, the Executive Council is empowered to appoint an Acting Secretary-General, whose term of office shall not extend beyond the next Congress.

Duties of the Secretary-General

In carrying out the duties specified in this Regulation, the Secretary-General shall comply with any directives issued by the Executive Council or, in accordance with Regulation 8, by the President of the Organization.

In addition to the duties under other Regulations of the Organization, the duties of the Secretary-General shall be:

- (1) To direct the work of the Secretariat;
- (2) To promote maximum compliance of Members of the Organization with the decisions of the Organization;
- (3) To report to each ordinary session of Congress and of the Executive Council on the activities of the Secretariat, the relations of the Organization with other international organizations, staff and financial matters;
- (4) To direct correspondence and maintain liaison with the President and Vice-Presidents of the Organization, presidents of associations and commissions, and with Members of the Organization, Permanent Representatives, States or territories which are not Members of the Organization, international organizations and others, and to act as representative in negotiations with all these authorities;
- (5) To arrange for the nomination of representatives of the Organization on subsidiary bodies of other international organizations or to attend meetings of these international organizations and to issue the necessary credentials and guidance to such representatives; due consideration should be given to the provisions of Regulation 37;
- (6) To act as the channel for communications (notifications, invitations, etc.) between the Organization and its Members, between constituent bodies and other organizations and, when appropriate, between constituent bodies;
- (7) To ensure that, in the fields concerning him, the president of a constituent body is kept fully advised of the activities and recommendations of other constituent bodies and of other international organizations;

(8) To maintain liaison and to collaborate as necessary with the Secretariats of other international organizations;

(9) To designate a representative of the Secretary-General and other staff of the Secretariat, as necessary, to attend each session of a constituent body to assist the president in conducting the work of the session.

General functions of the Secretariat

The general functions of the Secretariat shall be:

(1) To serve as the administrative, documentary and information centre of the Organization;

(2) To perform day-to-day programme-management functions under the guidance of the Executive Council and in close cooperation with the commissions in connection with the scientific and technical programmes approved by Congress;

(3) To make technical studies as directed by Congress or the Executive Council;

(4) To organize and perform secretarial duties at sessions of Congress, the Executive Council, the associations and the commissions within the limits of the appropriate provisions of these Regulations;

(5) To arrange for the issue with the provisional agenda of an explanatory memorandum summarizing the problems to be discussed in respect of each item on the agenda of each constituent body;

(6) To prepare or edit, arrange for the publication of and distribute the approved publications of the Organization;

(7) To provide an appropriate public relations service for the Organization;

(8) To maintain records of the extent to which each Member implements the decisions of the Organization;

(9) To maintain files of the correspondence of the Secretariat;

(10) To carry out the duties allocated to the Secretariat in the Convention and the Regulations of the Organization, and such other work as Congress, the Executive Council and the President of the Organization may decide.

ANNEX I

PROCEDURES RELATING TO THE ACCEPTANCE OF INVITATIONS FOR SESSIONS OF CONSTITUENT BODIES AND OTHER WMO CONFERENCES

(Reference: Regulation 17)

1. Regulation 17 establishes certain conditions which have to be satisfied in respect of the acceptance of invitations for holding sessions of any constituent body. Experience has shown that it is necessary to be specific in the application of this Regulation in practice. In addition, it is necessary to establish the procedure to be followed in respect of other conferences sponsored by WMO and paid for from the regular budget.
2. These procedures are only applicable to those sessions and conferences sponsored by the Organization and financed from the regular budget in which the participants are the designated representatives of their governments and are therefore not applicable to sessions, symposiums, conferences or other meetings in which the participants act in their individual capacities. At the discretion of the Secretary-General certain types of meetings, such as governmental panels, at which the participants are designated representatives of their governments, may be organized without making use of the procedure in this annex because of the urgency or other special circumstances in convening the meeting.
3. In the following procedures, the term “session” is intended to denote a session of a constituent body or another conference of the type specified in the preceding paragraphs. The time limits indicated below are minimum time limits. Subject to the special circumstances of each case, the Secretary-General may extend these time limits but in no event may they be reduced.
4. No invitation to host a session shall be considered unless it is received from the inviting government at least 300 days before the scheduled date of opening of the session. If the invitation satisfies this criterion, it should then be considered in the light of Regulation 17 and the necessary assurances obtained not later than 270 days before the scheduled opening date. If the invitation does not satisfy the aforementioned criterion, the session shall be held at WMO headquarters.

5. Simultaneously with the action referred to in the preceding paragraph, the Secretary-General shall take steps to obtain the assurances of the host Member that the necessary conference facilities will be provided by the host Member. These assurances must likewise be received not later than 270 days before the scheduled opening date of the session.

6. In the case where the assurances referred to in the previous two paragraphs are not received within the time limit prescribed and in the absence of any other host Member, the session concerned shall be held at WMO headquarters.

7. After receipt of the assurances referred to in the preceding two paragraphs, the Secretary-General will inform all Members of the Organization of the proposed session at least 240 days prior to the scheduled opening date. He shall invite Members to inform him by a certain date, not later than 180 days prior to the scheduled opening date, whether they intend to be represented at the session. A period of at least 60 days shall be given for Members to reply. The Secretary-General will then communicate to the host government not later than 165 days prior to the scheduled opening date the list of Members which have made known their intention to participate in the session and request this government to give assurances that it is willing to grant visas to representatives of all Members indicated in the above-mentioned list, in order to enable Members on the list to be represented at the session. At the same time, the Secretary-General will request the host government to supply information regarding the procedures it wishes to be followed by Members in making application for visas for their representatives to attend the session. Such assurances and information on procedures for visa applications shall be received not later than 135 days prior to the scheduled opening date of the session.

8. On the basis of the reply given by the host Member, the President will decide whether the invitation should be accepted and, if not, whether arrangements should then proceed for the session to be held at WMO headquarters or at some other place. The absence of a reply from the host Member will be regarded as its unwillingness to give the necessary assurances, in which case the invitation shall automatically be declined. In the case where a reply is received, the decision of the President will be taken on the basis of the list of Members referred to in the preceding paragraph and, for the purposes of this decision, this list shall not be modified by the addition of other Members which may decide to be represented at the session but which have not notified the Secretary-General within the time limit prescribed above.

9. In the event that the President should decide to accept the invitation, conditions regarding the notification to Members of the date and place of the session shall be made in accordance with the time limit of 120 days prescribed in the Regulations for a session of a constituent body. With regard to any other type of conference, the Executive Council will prescribe the time limit to be applied and the Members to be invited.

10. The Secretary-General, in notifying all Members of the decision to proceed with the session, will include the information regarding the procedure for the visa applications and will urge all Members to take the necessary action as promptly as possible.

11. In those cases where there are no diplomatic relations between a Member and the host Member and in other cases where the former considers that some difficulties may be experienced in obtaining visas, a request to the host Member for visas should be submitted through the Secretary-General. Such requests shall include all the particulars requested by the host Member for the granting of visas and shall be received by the Secretary-General at least 60 days prior to the scheduled opening date. The Secretary-General shall then transmit the request for visas to the host government as soon as possible and not later than 45 days before the scheduled opening date.

12. The potential hosts of WMO sessions should adhere to the programme of sessions of constituent bodies approved by Congress as well as to a standard agreement, as given in the appendix.

APPENDIXWMO HOST MEMBER AGREEMENT TEMPLATE*AGREEMENT BETWEEN*THE WORLD METEOROLOGICAL ORGANIZATION*AND*THE GOVERNMENT OF (HOST MEMBER)*REGARDING THE ARRANGEMENTS FOR (MEETING)

WHEREAS the Government of (HOST MEMBER), hereinafter referred to as “the Government”, has invited the World Meteorological Organization, hereinafter referred to as “WMO”, to hold the session of (MEETING) in (VENUE), hereinafter referred to as “the session”,

NOW THEREFORE, WMO and the Government hereby agree as follows:

ARTICLE IDate and place of the session

The session shall be held at (VENUE), from to (DATE).

ARTICLE IILegal Status

In accordance with article 27 (c) of the WMO Convention and General Regulation 17 (a), the Government shall grant to WMO, the representatives of Members, the officials of WMO and other participants in the session, the privileges, immunities and facilities provided for in the Convention on the Privileges and Immunities of the Specialized Agencies, to which the Government acceded in respect of WMO on dd/mm/yyyy, as well as in the provisions set forth in the following articles.

ARTICLE III

Participation at the session

1. In accordance with the WMO Convention, General Regulations and relevant resolutions and decisions of its constituent bodies, the session shall be open to the participation of:

(a) Duly accredited representatives or observers of:

(i) All WMO Members;

(ii) Non-Member States invited in accordance with General Regulation 19;

(iii) The State of Palestine in accordance with Resolution 39 of the Seventh Congress of WMO; and

(iv) Intergovernmental and non-governmental international organizations concerned by virtue of standing invitations or upon invitation approved by the president of the constituent body concerned;

(b) Members of the WMO Secretariat designated by the Secretary-General of WMO to serve the session;

(c) As well as experts or other persons performing a mission for WMO in connection with the session.

2. WMO shall provide the Government prior to the commencement of the session with a list containing the names of all persons referred to in paragraph 1 above. Thereafter, it shall inform the Government as soon as possible of any changes to the list of participants to the session.

3. All persons referred to in paragraph 1 shall enjoy immunity from legal process in respect of words spoken or written and any act performed by them in connection with their participation in the session. Throughout the duration of their participation in the session, including the time required by travel on the territory of (HOST MEMBER), they shall not be subject to any measure or arrest or expulsion for the conduct in the exercise of their function or mission.

4. All persons referred to in paragraph 1 shall have the right of entry into and exit from (HOST MEMBER), and no impediment shall be imposed on their transit to and from the conference area. They shall be granted facilities for speedy travel. Visas and entry permits, where required, shall be granted free of charge and as speedily as possible for their effective participation throughout the duration of the meeting, provided the application for the visa is made sufficiently in advance. Arrangements shall also be made to ensure that visas for the duration of the session are delivered at their arrival in the country to participants who were unable to obtain them prior to their departure. Exit permits, where required, shall be granted free of charge, as speedily as possible, and in any case not later than three days before the date of departure.

5. All persons referred to in paragraph 1 shall have the right to take out of (HOST MEMBER) at the time of their departure, without any restriction, any unexpended portions of the funds they brought into (HOST MEMBER) in connection with the session and to reconvert any such funds at the current exchange rate.

6. In the event of an international crisis during the session, the Government shall give all persons referred to in paragraph 1 repatriation facilities comparable to those granted to diplomatic agents.

ARTICLE IV

Premises, equipment, utilities and supplies

1. The Government shall arrange for the provision, at its expense, of appropriate premises, including conference rooms for formal and informal meetings, office space, working areas and other related facilities, as well as the equipment and supplies as are required for the effective functioning of the session as specified in Annex I* to this Agreement. The premises, equipment and supplies shall remain at the disposal of WMO 24 hours a day, including one day prior to the session and, on request, up to a maximum of one day after its close.

2. The Government shall, at its expense, furnish, equip and maintain in good repair all these premises and facilities in a manner adequate for the effective conduct of the session.

*Example annexes are not attached to this template.

3. The Government shall assume responsibility for the provision of telecommunication facilities required for the effective functioning of the session and shall meet the costs of all communications made by WMO for the purpose of the session as authorized by or on behalf of the representative of the Secretary-General at the session.

ARTICLE V

Accommodation

The Government shall ensure that adequate accommodation in hotels or residences is available at reasonable commercial rates for the participants referred to in article III above.

ARTICLE VI

Medical facilities

1. Medical facilities adequate for first aid in emergencies shall be made available, if and when required.
2. For serious emergencies, the Government shall ensure immediate transportation and admission to a hospital.

ARTICLE VII

Transport

1. The Government shall ensure, if required, the availability of transport for all participants and those attending the session between the principal hotels and the conference area.
2. The Government shall provide an adequate number of cars with drivers for official use by the principal officers and the secretariat of the session, as well as such other local transportation as is required by the secretariat for the effective functioning of the session.

ARTICLE VIII

Local personnel

1. The Government shall appoint a liaison officer who shall be responsible, in consultation with WMO, for making and carrying out the administrative and personnel arrangements for the session as required under this Agreement.

2. The Government shall recruit and provide an adequate number of local staff necessary for the proper functioning of the session. The exact requirements in this respect will be established by WMO in consultation with the Government and will be specified in Annex I.*

3. The personnel provided by the Government under the present article shall enjoy immunity from legal process in respect of words spoken or written and any act performed by them for WMO in connection with the session.

ARTICLE IX

Customs and financial facilities

The Government shall allow the temporary importation, tax-free and duty-free, of all equipment, supplies and publications which shall be considered as diplomatic goods under Article III, Section 9, b) of the Convention Privileges and Immunities of the United Nations Specialized Agencies. It shall therefore waive import duties and taxes on supplies necessary for the session. It shall issue without delay any necessary import and export permits for this purpose. Once the conference supplies have arrived, the Government shall be responsible for their immediate release from the customs bonds, their transport to the conference venue and their safekeeping.

ARTICLE X

Inviolability and protection of the Session

1. The conference premises specified in Article IV, paragraph 1, above, shall be deemed to constitute premises of WMO and access thereto shall be subject to the authority of WMO. The premises shall be inviolable for the duration of the session, including the preparatory stage and the winding-up.

2. The appropriate authorities of the Government shall exercise due diligence to ensure that the tranquillity of the session and its participants is not disturbed by any person or persons attempting unauthorized entry or creating disturbances in the immediate vicinity of the premises; if so requested by the representative of the Secretary-General at the session, they shall assist in the preservation of law and order in the premises.

ARTICLE XI

Financial arrangements

1. The Government agrees to bear the additional costs actually incurred to hold the session in (HOST MEMBER), rather than at WMO headquarters in Geneva. Such additional costs are provisionally estimated at CHF Swiss francs according to the breakdown in Annex II.*
2. After the session, WMO shall provide the Government with a detailed statement of accounts showing the actual costs incurred by WMO, in Swiss francs, using the United Nations official rate of exchange at the time the payments are made. If the actual costs are higher than the estimated costs, the Government shall remit such difference to WMO within one month of the receipt of the detailed accounts. If the difference is negative, WMO shall refund such amount to the Government within one month of the establishment of the detailed accounts, or shall dispose of it as instructed by the Government.
3. The final accounts shall be subject to audit as provided in the WMO Financial Regulations and Rules, and the final adjustment of accounts shall be subject to any observations which may arise from the audit carried out by the External Auditor of WMO, whose determination shall be accepted as final by both WMO and the Government.

ARTICLE XII

Liability

1. The Government shall be responsible for dealing with any action, claim or other demand against WMO or its officials and arising out of:
 - (a) Injury to persons or damage to or loss of property in the premises referred to in Article IV that are provided by or are under the control of the Government;

*Example annexes are not attached to this template.

(b) Injury to persons or damage to or loss of property caused by, or incurred in, using the transport services referred to in Article VII that are provided by or are under the control of the Government;

(c) The employment for the session of the personnel provided by the Government under Article VIII.

2. The Government shall indemnify and hold harmless WMO and its officials in respect of such action, claim or other demand, except where such damage, loss or injury is caused by the negligence or wilful misconduct of WMO and its personnel.

ARTICLE XIII

Settlement of disputes

1. Any dispute between WMO and the Government concerning the interpretation or application of this Agreement that is not settled by negotiation or other agreed mode of settlement shall be referred at the request of either party for final decision to a tribunal of three arbitrators, one to be appointed by the Secretary General of WMO, one to be appointed by the Government and the third, who shall be the chairman, to be chosen by the first two; if either party fails to appoint an arbitrator within 60 days of the appointment by the other party, or if these two arbitrators shall fail to agree on the third arbitrator within 60 days of their appointment, the President of the International Court of Justice may make any necessary appointments at the request of either party. Any arbitration shall take place in accordance with the Arbitration Rules of the United Nations Commission on International Trade Law (UNCITRAL), as at present in force.

2. The Parties agree to accept the Tribunal's decision as final and binding.

ARTICLE XIV

Final provisions

1. This Agreement may be modified by written agreement between WMO and the Government.

ANNEX II

REGIONAL ASSOCIATIONS

(Reference: Regulation 130)

The regional associations of the World Meteorological Organization established by Congress are as follows:

- Regional Association I – Africa
- Regional Association II – Asia
- Regional Association III – South America
- Regional Association IV – North America, Central America and the Caribbean
- Regional Association V – South-West Pacific
- Regional Association VI – Europe

General terms of reference

In carrying out the functions specified in Article 18 (d) of the Convention within the allotted geographical areas defined in this Annex, under the general guidance of Congress and the Executive Council and with support from the Secretariat, each regional association, in close coordination and collaboration with other bodies concerned, shall:

1. Coordinate and organize its Members' activities related to the planning, implementation and evaluation of agreed programmes, strategies and activities, at the regional and subregional levels;

2. Ensure that WMO is visible and recognized in its Region, and engage stakeholders in regional initiatives and projects related to the strategic priorities of the Organization; promote visibility and institutional capacity-building of its Members, and identify and address critical deficiencies for long-term sustainable modern services through supporting Members in the development of national strategic plans on meteorological and hydrological services; facilitate the exchange of best practices to communicate the socioeconomic benefits of meteorological and hydrological services;

3. Identify requirements and priorities among Members and regional bodies with the support of Regional Offices and communicate them, together with any impediments to the timely implementation of planned programmes, strategies and activities, to the Executive Council, technical commissions and other bodies, as appropriate, as the starting point of the WMO Strategic and Operational Planning Process; collaborate with Members, technical commissions and other bodies, as necessary, to support, monitor and regularly review all the regional centres established by WMO bodies, ensuring excellent performance, sustainable operations and effective services to regional Members; consult with technical commissions, Research Board, and other bodies, as appropriate, on the identification of common experts to assist with the sharing of regional priorities and requirements and the implementation of technical priorities and associated capacity-building activities; identify technical gaps and promote training to develop future experts;

4. Promote cooperation and efficiency by establishing regional networks and facilities based upon identified regional needs, in close coordination with the technical commissions concerned; monitor the performance of regional networks and facilities, and the open sharing of data and technical expertise, and require corrective measures, as necessary;

5. Contribute to the WMO Strategic Plan, Operating Plan and other implementation plans, as necessary, to reflect agreed strategic priorities from a regional perspective and ensure the engagement of Members in focused activities aimed at achieving the expected results of the WMO Strategic Plan;

6. Structure its work to address regional priorities and make the best use of the expertise of its Members to provide guidance and assistance, in accordance with the needs of the Region;

7. Build and promote cooperation and partnerships with relevant regional organizations, including the United Nations Regional Economic Commissions, other United Nations bodies, subregional organizations, development partners, non-governmental organizations, professional associations and academic and research organizations;

8. Advocate, through its president, to regional political and economic entities, and support Permanent Representatives in advocating to their governments, the necessary political and financial support to Members' capabilities to ensure provision of and access to vital meteorological, climatological, hydrological and other related environmental information and services.

ANNEX III

(Reference: Regulation 141)

The technical commissions of the World Meteorological Organization established by Congress are the following:

- (1) Commission for Observation, Infrastructure and Information Systems
- (2) Commission for Weather, Climate, Water and Related Environmental Services and Applications

General terms of reference

Within its terms of responsibility as defined hereunder and within the provisions of these Regulations, each technical commission shall:

1. Study and review advances in science and technology, keep Members informed and advise Congress, the Executive Council and other constituent bodies on these advances and their implications;

2. Develop, for consideration by the Executive Council and Congress, proposed international standards for methods, procedures, techniques and practices in meteorology and operational hydrology including, in particular, the relevant parts of the Technical Regulations, Guides and Manuals;

3. Under the general guidance of Congress and the Executive Council, carry out functions – with other bodies as necessary – relating to the planning, implementation and evaluation of the scientific and technical programme activities of the Organization;

4. Provide a forum for the examination and resolution of relevant scientific and technical issues;

5. Promote training by assisting in the organization of seminars and workshops and in the preparation of related material and the development of other suitable mechanisms for the transfer of knowledge and methodology, including the results of research, between Members;

6. Promote international cooperation and maintain, through appropriate channels, close cooperation on scientific and technical matters with other relevant international organizations;

7. Structure its work to address societal outcomes, in line with existing management processes by creating and maintaining an operating plan focusing on the areas identified within its specific terms of reference and addressing the WMO Strategic Plan;

8. Make such recommendations as it may consider necessary.

Specific terms of reference are provided in the Rules of Procedure for Technical Commissions (WMO-No. 1240).

STAFF REGULATIONS

The Staff Regulations of WMO were adopted by Eleventh Congress and became effective retroactively on 1 January 1990.

STAFF REGULATIONS OF THE WORLD METEOROLOGICAL ORGANIZATION

Scope and purpose

The Staff Regulations embody the fundamental conditions of service and the basic rights, duties and obligations of the Secretariat staff of the World Meteorological Organization, hereinafter called the Organization. They represent the broad principles of personnel policy for the staffing and administration of the Secretariat. The Secretary-General, as the chief administrative officer, shall provide and enforce such Staff Rules consistent with these principles as he considers necessary.

ARTICLE 1

Duties, obligations and privileges

- 1.1 Members of the Secretariat are international civil servants. Their responsibilities are not national but exclusively international. By accepting appointment, they pledge themselves to discharge their functions and to regulate their conduct with the interests of the Organization only in view.
- 1.2 Staff members are subject to the authority of the Secretary-General and to assignment by him to any of the activities or offices of the Organization. They are responsible to him in the exercise of their functions. The whole time of staff members shall be at the disposal of the Secretary-General. The Secretary-General shall establish a normal working week.
- 1.3 No member of the Secretariat shall accept, hold or engage in any office or occupation which is incompatible with the proper discharge of his duties with the Organization.
- 1.4 In the performance of their duties members of the Secretariat shall neither seek nor accept instructions from any government or from any other authority external to the Organization.
- 1.5 Members of the Secretariat shall conduct themselves at all times in a manner befitting their status as international civil servants. They shall avoid any action and in particular any kind of public pronouncement which may adversely reflect on that status. While they are not expected to give up their national sentiments or their political and religious convictions, they shall at all times bear in mind the reserve and tact incumbent upon them by reason of their international status.

- 1.6 Staff members shall exercise the utmost discretion in regard to all matters of official business. They shall not communicate to any person any information known to them by reason of their official position which has not been made public, except in the course of their duties or by authorization of the Secretary-General. At no time shall they in any way use to private advantage information known to them by reason of their official position. These obligations do not cease with separation from the service.
- 1.7 No staff member shall accept any honour, decoration, favour, gift or remuneration from any government except for war service; nor shall a staff member accept any honour, decoration, favour, gift or remuneration from any source external to the Organization, without first obtaining the approval of the Secretary-General. Approval shall be granted only in exceptional cases and where such acceptance is not incompatible with the terms of Regulation 1.2 and with the individual's status as an international civil servant.
- 1.8 Staff members may exercise the right to vote but shall not engage in any political activity which is inconsistent with or might reflect upon the independence and impartiality required by their status as international civil servants.
- 1.9 The immunities and privileges attached to the World Meteorological Organization by virtue of Article 27 of the Convention are conferred in the interests of the Organization. These privileges and immunities furnish no excuse to the staff members who enjoy them for non-performance of their private obligations or failure to observe laws and police regulations. In any case where these privileges and immunities arise, the staff member shall immediately report to the Secretary-General, with whom alone it rests to decide whether they shall be waived.
- 1.10 Members of the Secretariat shall subscribe to the following oath or declaration:

“I solemnly swear (undertake, affirm, promise) to exercise in all loyalty, discretion and conscience the functions entrusted to me as an international civil servant of the World Meteorological Organization, to discharge these functions and regulate my conduct with the interests of the Organization only in view, and not to seek or accept instructions in regard to the performance of my duties from any government or other authority external to the Organization, and at all times to observe the Standards of Conduct for the International Civil Service and the WMO Code of Ethics for staff.”

- 1.11 The oath or declaration shall be made orally by the Secretary-General in the presence of the President and either a Vice-President or another member of the Executive Council, and by all other members of the Secretariat before the Secretary-General or his authorized deputy.

ARTICLE 2

Classification of posts and staff

- 2.1 In conformity with relevant decisions of Congress the Secretary-General shall make appropriate provisions for the classification of posts and staff according to the nature of the duties and responsibilities required.

ARTICLE 3

Salaries and related allowances

- 3.1 Subject to the approval of the Executive Council with respect to changes in the salary scales, salaries of staff members other than in the General Service category shall be determined by the Secretary-General in accordance with the grades and corresponding gross and net salary scales applicable to United Nations personnel. The rate of pay for staff in the General Service category shall be determined by the Secretary-General in accordance with the equivalent scales for the office of the United Nations at Geneva.
- 3.2 All salaries, and all terminal payments computed under Regulation 3.1, unless specifically exempted by the Secretary-General at the time of appointment, shall be subject to an assessment as determined by the United Nations. The amount of salary remaining after deduction of the assessment is known as “net salary”.
- 3.3 The basic salary rates for Professional category staff shall be adjusted by application of the appropriate United Nations post adjustments.

- 3.4 The Secretary-General shall establish a scheme for the payment of dependency benefits, education grants and such other allowances as the Secretary-General may consider necessary in the interest of the Organization and in accordance with grants, allowances and benefits afforded to the United Nations personnel.

ARTICLE 4

Appointment and promotion

- 4.1 The Secretary-General shall appoint staff members as required in accordance with Article 21 (b) of the Convention and shall specify their terms of appointment. Upon appointment each staff member shall receive a letter of appointment signed by the Secretary-General or by an authorized official in the name of the Secretary-General.
- 4.2 The paramount consideration in the appointment, transfer or promotion of the staff shall be the necessity of securing the highest standards of efficiency, competence and integrity. Due regard shall be paid to the importance of recruiting and maintaining the staff on as wide a geographical basis as possible and with a view to achieving gender balance.
- 4.3 Selection of staff members shall be without regard to race, creed, political belief or sex. So far as is practicable, selection shall be made on a competitive basis.
- 4.4 Subject to the provisions of Regulation 4.3 and without prejudice to the recruitment of fresh talent at all levels, the fullest regard shall be had, in filling vacancies, to the requisite qualifications and experience of persons already in the service of the Organization. This consideration shall also be applied, on a reciprocal basis, to the United Nations and the specialized agencies brought into relationship with the United Nations.
- 4.5 Staff members shall be granted either permanent or temporary appointments. A permanent appointment shall be granted to staff members up to a level determined by Congress from time to time, subject to the satisfactory completion of a probationary period which shall be specified for each grade in the Staff Rules. Temporary appointments shall be granted for such periods and under such conditions as the Secretary-General may determine.

- 4.6 The Secretary-General shall establish appropriate medical standards which staff members shall be required to meet before appointment.

ARTICLE 5

Leave

- 5.1 Staff members shall be allowed appropriate annual leave.
- 5.2 Special leave may be authorized by the Secretary-General in exceptional cases.
- 5.3 Eligible staff members shall be granted home leave once every two years. The Organization shall allow necessary travelling time for that purpose under conditions and definitions prescribed by the Secretary-General.

ARTICLE 6

Social security

- 6.1 Provision shall be made for the participation of staff members in the United Nations Joint Staff Pension Fund in accordance with the regulations of that fund.
- 6.2 The Secretary-General shall establish a scheme of social security for the staff, including provisions for health protection, sick leave and maternity leave, and reasonable compensation in the event of illness, accident or death attributable to the performance of official duties on behalf of the World Meteorological Organization.

ARTICLE 7

Travel and removal expenses

- 7.1 The Secretary-General shall establish conditions and definitions under which the Organization, in appropriate cases, shall pay travel expenses to staff members, their spouses and dependent children.
- 7.2 The Secretary-General shall establish conditions and definitions under which the Organization shall pay removal costs for staff members.

ARTICLE 8

Staff relations

8.1 The Secretary-General shall make provision for staff participation in the discussion of policies relating to staff questions.

ARTICLE 9

Separation from service

9.1 Staff members may resign from the Secretariat upon giving the Secretary-General the notice required under the terms of their appointment.

9.2 (a) The Secretary-General may terminate the appointment of a staff member who holds a permanent appointment if the necessities of the service require abolition of the post or reduction of the staff, if the services of the individual concerned prove unsatisfactory, or if he is, for reasons of health, incapacitated for further service.

The Secretary-General may also, giving his reasons therefor, terminate the appointment of a staff member who holds a permanent appointment:

- (i) If the conduct of the staff member indicates that the staff member does not meet the highest standards of integrity required under Regulation 4.2;
- (ii) If facts anterior to the appointment of the staff member and relevant to his suitability come to light which, if they had been known at the time of his appointment, should, under the standards required by Regulation 4.2, have precluded his appointment.

No termination under subparagraphs (i) and (ii) shall take place until the matter has been considered and reported on by a special advisory board appointed for that purpose by the Secretary-General.

Finally, the Secretary-General may terminate the appointment of a staff member who holds a permanent appointment if such action would be in the interests of the good administration of the Organization and in accordance with the standards required under Regulation 4.2, provided that the action is not contested by the staff member concerned;

(b) The Secretary-General may terminate the appointment of a staff member with a fixed-term appointment prior to the expiration date for any of the reasons specified in paragraph (a) above, or for such other reason as may be specified in the letter of appointment;

(c) In the case of project personnel the Secretary-General may at any time terminate the appointment if, in his opinion, such action would be in the interests of the Organization.

9.3 If the Secretary-General terminates an appointment under Regulation 9.2 the staff member shall be given notice and indemnity payment in accordance with the terms of his appointment.

9.4 The Secretary-General shall establish a scheme for the payment of repatriation grants.

9.5 Staff members shall not be retained in active service beyond the age of 65 years. The Secretary-General may, in the interest of the Organization, retain staff members in service beyond this age limit in exceptional cases.

The retention of a staff member in the Professional category and above beyond the age of 65 shall require the authorization of the Executive Council.

ARTICLE 10

Disciplinary measures

10.1 The Secretary-General may impose disciplinary measures on staff members whose conduct is unsatisfactory. He may summarily dismiss a member of the staff for serious misconduct.

10.2 The Secretary-General shall establish administrative machinery with staff participation which shall be available to advise him in disciplinary cases.

ARTICLE 11

Appeals

11.1 The Secretary-General shall establish administrative machinery with staff participation to advise him in case of any appeal by staff members against an administrative decision alleging the non-observance of their terms of appointment, including all pertinent regulations and rules, or against disciplinary action.

- 11.2 The Administrative Tribunal, the competence of which has been recognized by the Organization, shall, under conditions prescribed in its statute, hear and pass judgement upon applications from staff members alleging non-observance of their terms of appointment including all pertinent provisions of the Staff Regulations and Staff Rules.

ARTICLE 12

General provisions

- 12.1 The allowances, grants, indemnities, leave provisions and travel provisions mentioned in these Regulations, and any other allowances which the Executive Council may deem necessary, shall be determined as far as practicable in conformity with the scales approved by the United Nations for the staff of that Organization.
- 12.2 The Secretary-General shall report annually to the Executive Council such Staff Rules and amendments thereto as he may make to implement these Regulations.
- 12.3 These Regulations may be supplemented or amended by Congress, without prejudice to the acquired rights of staff members. If it would not be in the interests of the Organization to defer an amendment until the next session of Congress, such amendment may be made by the Executive Council; an amendment made by the Executive Council shall be subject to approval by Congress at its next session.

FINANCIAL REGULATIONS OF THE WORLD METEOROLOGICAL ORGANIZATION

Applicability

- 1.1 These Regulations shall govern the financial administration of the World Meteorological Organization (hereinafter called the Organization). They may be amended only by Congress. In the event of any conflict between any provisions of these Regulations and any provisions of the Convention, the Convention shall prevail.

ARTICLE 2

The financial period

- 2.1 The financial period shall be four years beginning on 1 January of the calendar year immediately following a session of Congress and ending on 31 December of the fourth year.
- 2.2 Nevertheless, in the event that a session of Congress is completed before the beginning of the last full year of a financial period, a new financial period shall begin on 1 January following that session of Congress.

ARTICLE 3

Maximum expenditures for the financial period

- 3.1 Estimates of maximum expenditures which may be incurred by the Organization in the financial period shall be prepared by the Secretary-General.
- 3.2 The estimates shall cover the income and expenditures for the financial period to which they relate and shall be presented in Swiss francs.
- 3.3 The estimates shall be made by appropriation parts corresponding to the Long-Term Goals and presented in a results-based format and shall be accompanied by such informational annexes and explanatory statements as may be requested by, or on behalf of, Congress and such further annexes or statements as the Secretary-General may deem necessary and useful.

- 3.4 The estimates shall be submitted to the Executive Council at least five weeks prior to the meeting at which they will be considered. The Executive Council shall examine them and prepare a report on them to Congress.
- 3.5 The estimates prepared by the Secretary-General shall be transmitted to all Members at least six months prior to the opening of Congress. The report of the Executive Council on the estimates shall be transmitted with the estimates or as soon as possible thereafter, but not later than three months before the beginning of the session of Congress.
- 3.6 The maximum expenditures for the following financial period shall be voted by Congress after consideration of the estimates and of any supplementary estimates prepared by the Secretary-General and of the reports of the Executive Council on them.
- 3.7 Supplementary estimates for the financial period may be submitted to the Executive Council by the Secretary-General during the interval between the submission of the estimates to the Executive Council and the opening of Congress.
- 3.8 The Secretary-General shall prepare each supplementary estimate in a form consistent with the applicable portion of the estimates for the financial period.
- 3.9 When time permits, the Executive Council shall examine the supplementary estimates and prepare a report thereon to Congress; otherwise they shall be left for consideration by Congress.

ARTICLE 4

Authorization of appropriations for the financial period

- 4.1 The maximum expenditures voted by Congress shall constitute an authority to the Executive Council to approve appropriations for each of the two bienniums comprising the financial period. The total appropriations shall not exceed the amount voted by Congress.

- 4.2 Transfers between appropriation parts may be authorized by the Executive Council, subject to the total amount of such transfers not exceeding 3 (three) per cent of the total maximum expenditure authorized for the financial period.

ARTICLE 5

The biennium

- 5.1 The first biennium will begin with the commencement of the financial period, followed by the second biennium beginning on 1 January of the third year of the financial period.

ARTICLE 6

The biennial budget

- 6.1 The biennial budget estimates shall be prepared by the Secretary-General.
- 6.2 The estimates shall cover income and expenditure for the biennium to which they relate and shall be presented in Swiss francs.
- 6.3 The biennial budget estimates shall be presented in a results-based budget format based on the Long-Term Goals at the level of Strategic Objectives and shall be accompanied by such informational annexes and explanatory statements as may be requested by, or on behalf of, the Executive Council and such further annexes or statements as the Secretary-General may deem necessary and useful.
- 6.4 The Secretary-General shall submit to the regular meeting of the Executive Council estimates for the following biennium. The estimates shall be transmitted to all members of the Executive Council at least five weeks prior to the opening of the regular session of the Executive Council.
- 6.5 The budget for the following biennium shall be approved by the Executive Council.
- 6.6 Supplementary estimates may be submitted by the Secretary-General whenever necessary.
- 6.7 The Secretary-General shall prepare these supplementary estimates in the same form as that of the applicable portions of the estimates for the biennium and shall submit the estimates to the Executive Council for approval.

Appropriations

- 7.1 The appropriations approved by the Executive Council shall constitute an authorization to the Secretary-General to enter into commitments and make payments for the purposes for which the appropriations were approved and up to the amounts so approved.
- 7.2 Appropriations shall be available to enter into commitments during the biennium to which they relate.
- 7.3 Appropriations shall remain available for twelve months following the end of the financial year to which they relate to the extent that they are required to discharge commitments in respect of goods delivered and services rendered in the financial year and to discharge any other outstanding legal commitments of the financial year. At the end of the first biennium the remaining balance shall be re-appropriated subject to the approval of the Executive Council to the corresponding parts of the budget of the second biennium for the implementation of the programme approved by Congress.
- 7.4 At the end of the twelve-month period following the end of the two biennia mentioned in Regulation 7.3, the remaining balance of any appropriations retained shall be surrendered.
- 7.5 Notwithstanding the provisions of Regulations 7.3 and 7.4 in the case of outstanding legal obligations in respect of fellowships, the portion of the appropriation required shall remain available until the fellowships are completed or otherwise terminated. At the time of the termination of the fellowship, any remaining balance shall be retained in the General Fund for the sole purpose of financing further long-term and short-term fellowships.
- 7.6 Amounts surrendered in accordance with Regulations 7.3 and 7.4 shall be retained for the purposes approved by Congress for the financial period subject to the provisions of Regulation 9.1.
- 7.7 A transfer between appropriation parts may be made by the Secretary-General subject to confirmation by the Executive Council.

ARTICLE 8

Provision of fundsAssessments

- 8.1 Appropriations shall be financed by contributions from Members of the Organization according to the scale of assessments determined by Congress, such contributions to be adjusted in accordance with the provisions of Regulation 8.2. Pending the receipt of such contributions the appropriations may be financed from the Working Capital Fund.
- 8.2 For each of the two years of a biennium the contributions of Members shall be assessed on the basis of one half of the appropriations approved by the Executive Council for the biennium, except that adjustments shall be made to the assessment in respect of:
- (a) Supplementary appropriations for which contributions have not previously been assessed on Members;
 - (b) Half of the estimated miscellaneous income for the biennium for which credits have not previously been taken into account and any adjustments in estimated income previously taken into account.
- 8.3 After the Executive Council has approved the biennial budget and determined the amount needed for the Working Capital Fund, the Secretary-General shall:
- (a) Transmit the relevant documents to the Members of the Organization;
 - (b) Inform the Members of their commitments in respect of annual contributions and advances to the Working Capital Fund;
 - (c) Request them to remit their contributions and advances.
- 8.4 Contributions and advances shall be considered as due and payable in full within 30 days of the receipt of the communication of the Secretary-General referred to in Regulation 8.3 above, or as of the first day of the year to which they relate, whichever is the later. As of 1 January of the following year, the unpaid balance of such contributions and advances shall be considered to be one year in arrears.

- 8.5 Annual contributions and advances to the Working Capital Fund of the Organization shall be assessed and paid in Swiss francs.
- 8.6 Notwithstanding the provisions of Regulation 8.5 and to facilitate payments by Members, the Secretary-General may accept, to the extent he may find it practicable, payments of contributions in freely convertible currencies other than the Swiss franc. The exchange rate applicable to these payments in establishing their equivalent in the currency of the State in which the Organization has its headquarters shall be the official United Nations rate of exchange in force on the date of credit to the WMO bank account.
- 8.7 Payments made by a Member of the Organization shall be credited first to the Working Capital Fund, then applied in chronological order to the reduction of the contributions which are due in accordance with the scale of assessments.
- 8.8 Notwithstanding the provisions of Regulation 8.7, amounts received in respect of the current year's contribution will be credited to that year providing that the full yearly instalment due under the terms of special arrangements as established by Congress concerning the repayment of long-outstanding contributions has been paid to the Organization. These special arrangements may be concluded with any Member being in arrears for more than four years on the date of entry into force of such arrangements.
- 8.9 The Secretary-General shall submit to the regular sessions of the Executive Council a report on the collection of contributions and advances to the Working Capital Fund.

Contributions from new Members

- 8.10 New Members of the Organization shall be required to make a contribution for the unexpired portion of the biennium in which they become Members and to provide their proportion of the total advances to the Working Capital Fund at rates to be determined provisionally by the Executive Council, subject to subsequent approval by Congress.

Contributions from Members withdrawing from the Organization

- 8.11 A Member withdrawing from the Organization shall make its contribution for the period from the beginning of the biennium in which it withdraws up to and including the date of its withdrawal and shall be entitled only to the amount standing to its credit in the Working Capital Fund, less any sum due from that Member of the Organization.

ARTICLE 9

Funds

9.1 There shall be established a General Fund for the purpose of accounting for expenditures authorized under Regulations 7.1, 7.2 and 7.3. The General Fund will be credited with contributions paid by Members under Regulations 8.1, 8.10, 8.11 and miscellaneous income as defined under Regulation 10.1. Cash surpluses on the General Fund shall be credited on the basis of the scale of assessments to the Members of the Organization as follows:

- (a) For Members who have paid in full their previous contributions, by deduction from the next assessment;
- (b) For Members who have paid in full their contribution in respect of all previous financial periods, but who have not paid in full their contributions in respect of the period that relates to the surplus to be distributed, by reduction of their arrears, and thereafter by deduction from the next assessment;
- (c) For Members who are in arrears for more than the financial period concerning the one which relates to the surplus to be distributed, their share of the surplus will be retained by the World Meteorological Organization in a special account and will be paid when the provisions of Regulation 9.1 (a) or (b) are met.

9.2 The cash surplus on the General Fund shall consist of the sum of:

- (a) Unexpended appropriations surrendered at the end of the two biennia making up the financial period, in accordance with Regulation 7.4;
- (b) Plus the amount resulting from contributions paid by Members during the financial period that is in excess of the amount appropriated by the Executive Council for the two biennia making up the financial period; or, if Member contributions amount to less than the amount appropriated by the Executive Council for the two biennia making up the financial period, minus this difference;

- (c) Less any amount retained for purposes approved by Congress for the financial period in accordance with the provisions of Regulation 7.6, or available for fellowships in accordance with Regulation 7.5.

Working Capital Fund

- 9.3 There shall be established a Working Capital Fund to an amount fixed by Congress and for purposes to be determined from time to time by the Executive Council. The moneys of the Working Capital Fund shall be advanced by the Members of the Organization, or at the discretion of Congress provided from interest to the extent that it is earned on the investment of the cash resources of the Fund. Interest retained in the Fund shall be credited to Members' advance accounts in accordance with current balances. Advances by Members shall be calculated by the Executive Council in accordance with the scale of assessments for the apportionment of the expenses of the Organization, and shall be carried to the credit of those Members that have made such advances.
- 9.4 Advances made from the Working Capital Fund to finance appropriations during a biennium shall be reimbursed to the Fund as soon as and to the extent that income is available for that purpose.
- 9.5 Except when such advances are recoverable from some other source, advances made from the Working Capital Fund for unforeseen and extraordinary expenses or other authorized purposes shall be reimbursed through the submission of supplementary estimates.
- 9.6 Income derived from investments of the Working Capital Fund, not retained in the Fund to meet an increase in the level of the capital of the Fund, shall be credited to miscellaneous income.
- 9.7 Trust funds, reserve and special accounts may be established by the Secretary-General and shall be reported to the Executive Council.
- 9.8 The purpose and limits of each trust fund, reserve and special account shall be clearly defined by the Executive Council. Unless otherwise provided by Congress, such funds and accounts shall be administered in accordance with the present Financial Regulations.
- 9.9 Income derived from investments of trust funds, reserve and special accounts shall be credited as provided in the provisions applicable to such funds or accounts or at the request of the donors at any time. In other circumstances, Regulation 10.1 shall apply.

ARTICLE 10

Other income

10.1 All other income, except:

- (a) Contributions to the budget;
- (b) Direct refunds of General Fund expenditures made during the current biennium;
- (c) Advances or deposits to funds and accounts;
- (d) Interest earned on the Working Capital Fund to the extent that it is required to augment the level of the Working Capital Fund;
- (e) Revenue from rental of excess space, conference rooms and cafeteria facilities, and sales of publications and souvenirs;
- (f) Revenue from programme support cost charges to trust funds;

shall be classed as miscellaneous income, for credit to the General Fund, unless otherwise specified in accordance with Regulation 9.9.

Voluntary contributions, gifts or donations

10.2 Voluntary contributions, whether or not in cash, may be accepted by the Secretary-General, provided that the purposes for which the contributions are made are consistent with the policies, aims and activities of the Organization and provided that the acceptance of such contributions that directly or indirectly involve additional financial liability for the Organization shall require the consent of Congress or, in case of urgency, of the Executive Council.

10.3 Moneys accepted for purposes specified by the donor shall be treated as trust funds or special accounts under Regulations 9.7 and 9.8.

- 10.4 Moneys accepted in respect of which no purpose is specified shall be treated as miscellaneous income and shall be reported as “gifts” in the annual financial statements.

ARTICLE 11

Custody of funds

- 11.1 The Secretary-General shall designate the bank or banks in which the funds of the Organization shall be kept.

ARTICLE 12

Investment of funds

- 12.1 The Secretary-General may make short-term investments using money that is not immediately needed.
- 12.2 The Secretary-General may make long-term investments of moneys standing to the credit of trust funds, reserve and special accounts, except as may be otherwise provided by the appropriate authority in respect of each such fund or account and having regard to the particular requirements as to the liquidity of funds in each case.

ARTICLE 13

Internal control

- 13.1 The Secretary-General shall:
- (a) Establish detailed financial rules and procedures in order to ensure effective financial administration, the exercise of economy and effective custody of the physical assets of the Organization;
 - (b) Cause all payments to be made on the basis of supporting vouchers and other documents that ensure that the services or goods have been received, and that payments have not previously been made;
 - (c) Designate the officers who may receive moneys, incur obligations and make payments on behalf of the Organization.

- 13.2 (a) In addition to payments authorized under clause (b) below, and notwithstanding Regulation 13.1 (b) above, the Secretary-General may, when he deems it in the interest of the Organization to do so, authorize progress payments;
- (b) Except where normal commercial practice in the interest of the Organization so requires, no contract or purchase order shall be made on behalf of the Organization which requires a payment in advance of the delivery of goods or performance of contractual services.
- 13.3 No obligations shall be incurred until allotments or other appropriate authorizations have been made in writing under the authority of the Secretary-General, or by the officer to whom such authority has been delegated.

Ex gratia payments

- 13.4 The Secretary-General may with the approval of the President make such ex gratia payments as he deems to be necessary in the interest of the Organization, provided that a statement of such payments shall be submitted to the Executive Council with the financial statements as detailed in Regulation 14.1.

Writing-off of losses or deficiencies

- 13.5 The Secretary-General may, after full investigation, authorize the writing-off of losses of cash, stores and other assets, except unpaid contributions, provided that a statement of all such amounts written off shall be submitted to the External Auditor with the financial statements.

Contracts and purchases

- 13.6 Tenders for equipment, supplies and other requirements shall be invited by advertisement, except where the Secretary-General deems that, in the interests of the Organization, a departure from the rule is desirable.

Internal oversight

- 13.7 Under the broader scheme of internal oversight, the Secretary-General shall establish an office to provide for an independent verification of financial, administrative and operational activities of

WMO, including programme evaluation, monitoring mechanisms and consulting services. The office shall be called the Internal Oversight Office and shall ensure:

- (a) The regularity of the receipt, custody and disposal of all funds and other financial resources of the Organization;
- (b) The conformity of expenditure with the appropriations or other financial provisions voted by Congress or approved by the Executive Council, or with the purpose and rules related to trust funds and special accounts;
- (c) The compliance of all financial and other management activities with the established legislation;
- (d) The timeliness, completeness and accuracy of financial and other administrative data;
- (e) The effective, efficient and economical use of all resources of the Organization.

13.8 The Internal Oversight Office shall also be responsible for investigating all allegations or presumptions of fraud, waste, mismanagement or misconduct and for conducting inspections of services and organizational units.

13.9 The Secretary-General shall appoint a technically qualified head of Internal Oversight Office after consulting with, and obtaining the approval of, the President of WMO acting on behalf of the Executive Council. Notwithstanding Articles 9, 10 and 11 of the Staff Regulations dealing with separation from service, disciplinary measures and appeals, respectively, the Secretary-General shall likewise consult the President of WMO acting on behalf of the Executive Council and obtain his approval before separation of the head of the Office. These actions by the President in accordance with General Regulation 146 shall be reported to the following regular session of the Executive Council.

13.10 The Internal Oversight Office shall function in accordance with the following provisions:

- (a) The head of the Office shall report directly to the Secretary-General;
- (b) The Office shall have full, free and prompt access to all records, property, personnel, operations and functions within the Organization that, in its opinion, are relevant to the subject matter under review;

- (c) It shall be available to receive directly from individual staff members complaints or information concerning the possible existence of fraud, waste, mismanagement or misconduct. No reprisals shall be taken against staff members providing such information unless this was wilfully provided with the knowledge that it was false or with intent to misinform;
- (d) It shall report the results of its work and make recommendations to the Secretary-General with a copy to responsible managers for action and the External Auditor. At the request of the head of the Office, any such report shall be submitted to the Executive Council together with the Secretary-General's comments thereon;
- (e) The Office shall submit a summary report annually to the Secretary-General with a copy to the External Auditor on its activities, including the orientation and scope of such activities. This report shall be submitted to the Executive Council by the Secretary-General together with any comments he wishes to make;
- (f) It shall monitor the implementation of recommendations duly noted by the Executive Council.

ARTICLE 14

Financial statements

14.1 The Secretary-General shall submit to the Executive Council, for its approval, annual financial statements showing, for the year to which they relate:

- (a) Financial position;
- (b) Financial performance;
- (c) Changes in net assets/equity;
- (d) Cash flow;

- (e) Actual amounts in comparison to the approved budget;
- (f) Notes, comprising a summary of significant accounting policies and other explanatory notes.

In addition, the Secretary-General shall maintain, for management purposes, such accounting records as are necessary.

14.2 The Secretary-General shall submit for the second year of the biennium, in addition to the financial statements for the year as indicated in Regulation 14.1, a statement showing for the biennium to which they relate the status of appropriations, including:

- (a) The original budget appropriations;
- (b) The appropriations as modified by any transfers;
- (c) Credits, if any, other than the appropriations approved by the Executive Council;
- (d) The amounts charged against those appropriations and/or other credits.

14.3 The financial statements of the Organization shall be presented in Swiss francs and shall be prepared in accordance with International Public Sector Accounting Standards. Accounting records may, however, be kept in such currency or currencies as the Secretary-General may deem necessary.

14.4 Appropriate separate accounts shall be maintained for all trust funds, reserve and special accounts.

14.5 The financial statements shall be submitted by the Secretary-General to the External Auditor not later than 31 March following the end of the financial year to which they relate.

14.6 The Secretary-General shall submit, in addition to the financial statements covering the first year of the financial period, a statement of the total expenditures made in respect of the previous financial period. The statement shall be prepared on the same basis as the statement of comparison of actual amounts and approved budget included in the financial statements in accordance with Regulation 14.1 (e).

ARTICLE 15

External auditAppointment

15.1 An External Auditor, who shall be the Auditor-General (or officer holding the equivalent title) of a Member, shall be appointed, in the manner decided by the Executive Council, for a period of four years.

Tenure of office

15.2 If the External Auditor ceases to hold that office in his or her own country, his or her tenure of office as External Auditor shall thereupon be terminated and he or she shall be succeeded as External Auditor by his or her successor as Auditor-General. The External Auditor may not otherwise be removed during his or her tenure of office except by the Executive Council.

Scope of audit

15.3 The audit shall be conducted in conformity with generally accepted common auditing standards, and, subject to any special directions of the Executive Council, in accordance with the additional terms of reference set out in the annex to these Regulations.

15.4 The External Auditor may make observations with respect to the efficiency of the financial procedures, the accounting system, the internal financial controls and, in general, the administration and management of the Organization.

15.5 The External Auditor shall be completely independent and solely responsible for the conduct of the audit.

15.6 The Executive Council may request the External Auditor to perform certain specific examinations and issue separate reports on the results.

Facilities

15.7 The Secretary-General shall provide the External Auditor with the facilities he or she may require in the performance of the audit.

15.8 For the purpose of making a local or special examination or of effecting economies of audit cost, the External Auditor may engage the services of any national Auditor-General (or equivalent title) or commercial public auditors of known repute or any other person or firm who, in the opinion of the External Auditor, is technically qualified.

Reporting

15.9 The External Auditor shall issue reports on the audit of the financial statements and relevant schedules, which shall include such information as he or she deems necessary in regard to matters referred to in Regulation 15.4 and in the additional terms of reference.

15.10 The External Auditor's reports shall be transmitted, together with the relevant audited financial statements, to the Executive Council, which shall examine them in accordance with any directions given by Congress.

ARTICLE 16

Decisions involving expenditures

16.1 No regional association, technical commission or other competent body shall take a decision involving either an administrative change in a programme approved by Congress or the Executive Council, or the possible requirement of expenditure, unless it has received and taken account of a report from the Secretary-General on the administrative and financial implications of the proposal. Where, in the opinion of the Secretary-General, the proposed expenditure cannot be made from the existing appropriations, it shall not be incurred until the Executive Council has made the necessary appropriations, unless the Secretary-General certifies that provision can be made under the conditions of the resolution of the Executive Council relating to unforeseen expenditure.

ARTICLE 17

General provisions

- 17.1 In case of urgency and with the approval of the President of the Organization, the Secretary-General shall refer to Members, for decision by correspondence, financial matters that are beyond the competence of the Executive Council.
- 17.2 The applications of any of the present Regulations may be suspended for a period that shall not extend beyond the next session of Congress if the Executive Council has decided that the matter under consideration is of such a character that a decision should be taken before the next Congress. In such circumstances, the proposal of the Executive Council for such a suspension shall be communicated by the Secretary-General to all Members for consultation and subsequently for a postal ballot according to the procedures for voting by correspondence in the General Regulations.
- 17.3 In the application of Regulation 17.1 the proposal shall be adopted, and in the application of Regulation 17.2 the suspension of regulations shall be put into force, if two thirds of the votes cast for and against that have reached the Secretariat within 90 days of the date of dispatch of the request to vote to Members are in the affirmative. The decisions shall be communicated to all Members.
- 17.4 In case of doubt as to the interpretation or application of any of these Financial Regulations, the Secretary-General is authorized to rule thereon, subject to confirmation by the President in important cases.
- 17.5 The present Financial Regulations do not apply to the field projects of the technical cooperation activities of the Organization financed by the United Nations Development Programme; the Secretary-General is authorized to administer those activities under Financial Regulations and Rules established by the governing body and the Administrator of the United Nations Development Programme.

ANNEX

ADDITIONAL TERMS OF REFERENCE GOVERNING EXTERNAL AUDIT

(1) The External Auditor shall perform such audit of the financial statements of the Organization, including all trust funds and special accounts, as he or she deems necessary in order to satisfy himself or herself:

- (a) That the financial statements are in accord with the books and records of the Organization;
- (b) That the financial transactions reflected in the statements have been in accordance with the rules and regulations, the budgetary provisions and other applicable directives;
- (c) That the securities and moneys on deposit and on hand have been verified by certificate received direct from the Organization's depositaries or by actual count;
- (d) That the internal controls are adequate in the light of the extent of reliance placed thereupon;
- (e) That procedures satisfactory to the External Auditor have been applied to the recording of all assets, liabilities, surpluses and deficits.

(2) The External Auditor shall be the sole judge as to the acceptance in whole or in part of certifications and representations by the Secretary-General and may proceed to such detailed examination and verification as he or she chooses of all financial records, including those relating to supplies and equipment.

(3) The External Auditor and his or her staff have free access at all convenient times to all books, records and other documentation that are, in the opinion of the External Auditor, necessary for the performance of the audit. Information that is classified as privileged and which the Secretary-General (or his designated senior official) agrees is required by the External Auditor for the purposes of the audit and information classified as confidential shall be made available on application. The External Auditor and his or her staff shall respect the privileged and confidential nature of any information so classified that has been made available and shall not make use of it except in direct connection with the performance of the audit. The External Auditor may draw the attention of the Executive Council to any denial of information classified as privileged that in his or her opinion was required for the purpose of the audit.

(4) The External Auditor shall have no power to disallow items in the financial statements but shall draw to the attention of the Secretary-General for appropriate action any transaction concerning which he or she entertains doubt as to legality or propriety. Audit objections to these, or any other transactions, arising during the examination of the financial statements shall be communicated immediately to the Secretary-General.

(5) The External Auditor shall express and sign an opinion on the financial statements of the Organization. The opinion shall include the following basic elements:

- (a) The identification of the financial statements audited;
- (b) A reference to the responsibility of the Secretary-General and the responsibility of the External Auditor;
- (c) A reference to the audit standards followed;
- (d) A description of the work performed;
- (e) An expression of opinion on the financial statements as to whether:
 - (i) The financial statements present fairly the financial position as at the end of the period and the results of the operations for the period;
 - (ii) The financial statements were prepared in accordance with the stated accounting policies;
 - (iii) The accounting policies were applied on a basis consistent with that of the preceding financial period;
- (f) An expression of opinion on the compliance of transactions with the Financial Regulations and legislative authority;
- (g) The date of the opinion;
- (h) The External Auditor's name and position;

- (i) Should it be necessary, a reference to the report of the External Auditor on the financial statements.
- (6) The report of the External Auditor to the Executive Council on financial operations of the period should mention:
- (a) The type and scope of his or her examination;
 - (b) Matters affecting the completeness or accuracy of the financial statements, including, where appropriate:
 - (i) Information necessary to the correct interpretation of the financial statements;
 - (ii) Any amounts which ought to have been received but which have not been brought to account;
 - (iii) Any amounts for which a legal or contingent obligation exists and which have not been recorded or reflected in the financial statements;
 - (iv) Expenditures not properly substantiated;
 - (v) Whether proper books of accounts have been kept. Where in the presentation of statements there are deviations of a material nature from the generally accepted accounting principles applied on a consistent basis, these should be disclosed;
 - (c) Other matters that should be brought to the notice of the Executive Council, such as:
 - (i) Cases of fraud or presumptive fraud;
 - (ii) Wasteful or improper expenditure of the Organization's money or other assets (notwithstanding that the accounting for the transaction may be correct);
 - (iii) Expenditure likely to commit the Organization to further outlay on a large scale;
 - (iv) Any defect in the general system or detailed regulations governing the control of receipts and disbursements or of supplies and equipment;
 - (v) Expenditure not in accordance with the intention of Congress and/or the Executive Council after making allowance for duly authorized transfers within the budget;
 - (vi) Expenditure in excess of appropriations as amended by duly authorized transfers within the budget;
 - (vii) Expenditure not in conformity with the authority that governs it;

- (d) The accuracy or otherwise of the supplies and equipment records as determined by stock-taking and examination of the records;
 - (e) If appropriate, transactions accounted for in a previous year concerning which further information has been obtained or transactions in a later year concerning which it seems desirable that the Executive Council should have early knowledge.
- (7) The External Auditor may make such observations with respect to his or her findings resulting from the audit and such comments on the Secretary-General's financial report as he or she deems appropriate to the Executive Council or to the Secretary-General.
- (8) Whenever the scope of audit of the External Auditor is restricted, or whenever he or she is unable to obtain sufficient evidence, the External Auditor shall refer to the matter in his or her report, making clear in the report the reasons for his or her comments and the effect on the financial position and the financial transactions as recorded.
- (9) In no case shall the External Auditor include criticism in his or her report without first affording the Secretary-General an adequate opportunity of explanation on the matter under observation.
- (10) The External Auditor is not required to mention any matter referred to in the foregoing that, in his or her opinion, is insignificant in all respects.

PROTOCOL CONCERNING THE ENTRY INTO FORCE OF THE AGREEMENT BETWEEN THE UNITED NATIONS AND THE WORLD METEOROLOGICAL ORGANIZATION

Article 57 of the Charter of the United Nations provides that specialized agencies established by intergovernmental agreement and having wide international responsibilities as defined in their basic instruments in economic, social, cultural, educational, health and related fields shall be brought into relationship with the United Nations. Article 63 of the Charter provides that the Economic and Social Council may enter into agreements with any of the agencies referred to in Article 57, defining the terms on which the agency concerned shall be brought into relationship with the United Nations, and specifies that such agreements shall be subject to approval by the General Assembly.

Article 25 of the Convention of the World Meteorological Organization provides that the Organization shall be brought into relationship with the United Nations subject to the approval of the terms of the agreement by two-thirds of the Members which are States.

On 10 March 1948, the Economic and Social Council, during its sixth session, directed its Committee on Negotiations with Intergovernmental Agencies to enter into negotiations at the appropriate time with the World Meteorological Organization for the purpose of bringing it into relationship with the United Nations and to submit a report on the negotiations to the Council including therein a draft preliminary agreement based on these negotiations.

During the twelfth session of the Council, the Committee on Negotiations with Intergovernmental Agencies requested its chairman forthwith to negotiate an agreement on its behalf with the World Meteorological Organization.

The Congress of the World Meteorological Organization, at its first session which was held in Paris in March and April 1951, appointed its President and two Vice-Presidents as negotiating officers to undertake negotiations with the chairman of the United Nations Committee on Negotiations with Intergovernmental Agencies to prepare a draft agreement.

Negotiations between the chairman of the Committee on Negotiations with Intergovernmental Agencies of the Economic and Social Council and authorized officers of the World Meteorological Organization took place on 5 April 1951 in Paris and resulted in a draft agreement. This draft agreement was signed on 5 April 1951 by Sir Ramaswami Mudaliar, chairman of the Committee on Negotiations with Intergovernmental Agencies, and Sir Nelson K. Johnson, head of the negotiating officers of the World Meteorological Organization.

On 9 August 1951 the Economic and Social Council, during its thirteenth session, recommended the Agreement between the United Nations and the World Meteorological Organization to the General Assembly for its approval.

Article XVIII of the agreement provides that this agreement shall come into force on its approval by the General Assembly of the United Nations and by the World Meteorological Organization in accordance with Article 25 of the Convention of the World Meteorological Organization. The agreement was approved by the Congress of the World Meteorological Organization during its first session on 10 April 1951 and by the General Assembly of the United Nations during its sixth regular session on 20 December 1951. The agreement accordingly came into force on 20 December 1951.

IN FAITH WHEREOF we have appended our signatures this 19th day of February, one thousand nine hundred and fifty-two, to two original copies of the present Protocol, the text of which consists of versions in the English and French languages which are equally authentic. One of the original copies will be deposited with the Secretariat of the United Nations and the other will be deposited with the Secretariat of the World Meteorological Organization.

AGREEMENT BETWEEN THE UNITED NATIONS AND THE WORLD METEOROLOGICAL ORGANIZATION

Preamble

In consideration of the provisions of Article 57 of the Charter of the United Nations and of Article 25 of the Convention of the World Meteorological Organization, the United Nations and the World Meteorological Organization agree as follows:

ARTICLE I

The United Nations recognizes the World Meteorological Organization (hereinafter called “the Organization”) as the Specialized Agency responsible for taking such action as may be appropriate under its basic instrument for the accomplishment of the purposes set forth therein.

ARTICLE II

Reciprocal representation

(1) The United Nations shall be invited to send representatives to participate, without vote, in the deliberations of all the Congresses and meetings of the Executive Committee and regional associations. It shall also, after appropriate consultation, be invited to send representatives to attend meetings of the technical commissions or any other meetings convened by the Organization with the right to participate without vote in the discussion of items of interest to the United Nations.

(2) The Organization shall be invited to send representatives to attend meetings of the Economic and Social Council of the United Nations (hereinafter called “the Council”), of its commissions and committees and to participate, without vote, in the deliberations thereof with respect to items on the agenda in which the Organization may be concerned.

(3) The Organization shall be invited to send representatives to attend the meetings of the General Assembly during which questions within the competence of the Organization are under discussion for purposes of consultation, and to participate, without vote, in the deliberations of the main committees of the General Assembly with respect to items concerning the Organization.

(4) The Organization shall be invited to send representatives to attend meetings of the Trusteeship Council of the United Nations and to participate, without vote, in the deliberations thereof, with respect to items on its agenda relating to meteorological matters.

(5) Written statements presented by the Organization shall be distributed by the Secretariat of the United Nations to the members of the General Assembly, the Council and its commissions, and the Trusteeship Council as appropriate. Similarly, written statements presented by the United Nations shall be distributed by the Organization to its Members.

ARTICLE III

Proposal of agenda items

Subject to such preliminary consultation as may be necessary, the Organization shall include on the agenda of its Congresses and meetings of the Executive Council, regional associations and technical commissions, or, as the case may be, shall submit to its Members, items proposed to it by the United Nations. Similarly, the Council, its commissions and committees and the Trusteeship Council shall include on their agenda items proposed by the Organization.

ARTICLE IV

Recommendations of the United Nations

(1) The Organization, having regard to the obligations of the United Nations to promote the objectives set forth in Article 55 of the Charter, and the functions and power of the Economic and Social Council under Article 62 of the Charter to make or initiate studies and reports with respect to international economic, social, cultural, educational, health and related matters and to make recommendations concerning these matters to the specialized agencies concerned, and having regard also to the responsibility of the United Nations, under Articles 58 and 63 of the Charter, to make recommendations for the coordination of the policies and activities of such specialized agencies, agrees to arrange for the submission as soon as possible to its appropriate organ or to its Members for such action as may seem proper, of all formal recommendations which the United Nations may make to it.

(2) The Organization agrees to enter into consultation with the United Nations upon request with respect to such recommendations and in due course to report to the United Nations on the action taken by the Organization or by its members to give effect to such recommendations or on the other results of their consideration.

(3) The Organization agrees to cooperate in whatever further measures may be necessary to make coordination of the activities of specialized agencies and those of the United Nations fully effective. In particular, it agrees to cooperate with any body or bodies which the Council may establish for the purpose of facilitating such coordination and furnish such information as may be required for the carrying out of this purpose.

ARTICLE V

Exchange of information and documents

(1) Subject to such arrangements as may be necessary for the safeguarding of confidential material, the fullest and promptest exchange of information and documents shall be made between the United Nations and the Organization to meet the requirements of each.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of the provisions of the preceding paragraph:

- (a) The Organization shall submit to the United Nations an annual report on its activities;
- (b) The Organization shall comply to the fullest extent practicable with any request which the United Nations may make for the furnishing of special reports, studies or information, subject to the conditions set forth in Article XIII;
- (c) The Secretary-General of the United Nations shall, upon request, consult with the Secretary-General of the Organization regarding the provision to the Organization of such information as may be of special interest to it.

ARTICLE VI

Assistance to the United Nations

The Organization agrees to cooperate with and to render all possible assistance to the United Nations, its principal and subsidiary organs, in accordance with the United Nations Charter and the World Meteorological Convention, taking fully into account the particular position of the individual Members of the Organization which are not members of the United Nations.

ARTICLE VII

Relations with the International Court of Justice

(1) The Organization agrees to furnish any information which may be requested by the International Court of Justice in pursuance of Article 34 of the Statute of the Court.

(2) The General Assembly authorizes the Organization to request advisory opinions of the International Court of Justice on legal questions arising within the scope of its competence other than questions concerning the mutual relationships of the Organization with the United Nations or with other specialized agencies.

(3) Such requests may be addressed to the Court by the Congress or the Executive Council acting in pursuance of an authorization by the Congress.

(4) When requesting the International Court of Justice to give an advisory opinion, the Organization shall inform the Council of the request.

ARTICLE VIII

Headquarters and regional offices

(1) The Organization agrees to consult with the United Nations before making any decision concerning the location of its permanent headquarters.

(2) Having due regard to the special needs of world meteorology, any regional or branch office which the Organization may establish shall so far as is practicable be closely associated with such regional or branch offices as the United Nations or other specialized agencies may establish.

ARTICLE IX

Personnel arrangements

(1) The United Nations and the Organization agree to develop as far as practicable common personnel standards, methods and arrangements designed to avoid serious discrepancies in terms and conditions of employment, to avoid competition in recruitment of personnel, and to facilitate any mutually desirable interchange of personnel in order to obtain the maximum benefit from their services.

(2) The United Nations and the Organization agree to cooperate to the fullest extent possible in achieving these ends and to consult in regard to the participation of the Organization in the work of the International Civil Service Advisory Board and the United Nations Joint Staff Pension Fund.

(3) The United Nations and the Organization agree further to consult as to the desirability of concluding a special agreement extending the competence of the United Nations Administrative Tribunal to the Organization.

ARTICLE X

Statistical services

(1) The United Nations and the Organization agree to strive for maximum cooperation, the elimination of all undesirable duplication between them, and the most efficient use of their technical personnel in their respective collection, analysis, publication, standardization, improvement and dissemination of statistical information. They agree to combine their efforts to secure the greatest possible usefulness and utilization of statistical information and to minimize the burdens placed upon national governments and other organizations from which such information may be collected.

(2) The Organization recognizes the United Nations as the central agency for the collection, analysis, publication, standardization, improvement and dissemination of statistics serving the general purposes of international organizations.

(3) In view of the fact that meteorological statistics of universal application to scientific research, aviation, shipping, agriculture, health and other human activities can best be derived from data collected and compiled by or through the Organization, the United Nations recognizes the Organization as the specialized agency responsible in conformity with Article 2 of its Convention for the collection, analysis, publication, standardization, improvement and dissemination of statistics in the field of meteorology and its applications, and for the supply of such statistics to other specialized agencies without prejudice to the right of the United Nations to concern itself with such statistics so far as it may be essential for its own purposes or for the improvement of statistics throughout the world. All decisions as to the form in which its service documentation shall be compiled rest with the Organization.

(4) The United Nations shall, in consultation with the Organization and with the other specialized agencies where appropriate, develop administrative instruments and procedures through which effective statistical cooperation may be secured between the United Nations and the specialized agencies and among the specialized agencies themselves.

(5) It is recognized as important that the collection of meteorological statistical information shall not be duplicated by the United Nations or any of its other specialized agencies whenever it is practicable for any of them to utilize information or material which the Organization has or can make available.

(6) In order to build up a central collection of statistical information for general use, it is agreed that data supplied to the Organization for incorporation in its basic statistical series or special reports should, so far as practicable, be made available to the United Nations upon request.

(7) It is agreed that data supplied to the United Nations by other sources than that of the Organization for incorporation in its basic statistical series or special reports or for other purposes should, so far as practicable and appropriate, be made available to the latter upon request.

ARTICLE XI

Administrative and technical services

(1) The United Nations and the Organization recognize the desirability, in the interest of the most efficient use of personnel and resources, of avoiding, whenever possible, the establishment of competitive or overlapping services, and agree when necessary to consult thereon to achieve these ends.

(2) Arrangements shall be made between the United Nations and the Organization in regard to the registration and deposit of official documents.

(3) Officials of the Organization shall have the right to use the "laissez-passer" of the United Nations in accordance with special arrangements to be negotiated between the Secretary-General of the United Nations and the competent authorities of the Organization.

ARTICLE XII

Budgetary and financial arrangements

(1) The Organization recognizes the desirability of establishing close budgetary and financial relationships with the United Nations in order that the administrative operations of the United Nations and of the specialized agencies shall be carried out in the most efficient and economical manner possible and that the maximum measure of coordination and uniformity with respect to these operations shall be secured.

(2) The United Nations and the Organization agree to cooperate to the fullest extent possible in achieving these ends and, in particular, shall if it appears expedient to both organizations consult together concerning the desirability of making appropriate arrangements for the inclusion of the budget of the Organization within a general budget of the United Nations. Any such arrangement shall be defined in a supplementary agreement between the two organizations.

(3) Pending the conclusion of any such agreement, the following arrangement shall govern budgetary and financial relationships between the United Nations and the Organization:

- (a) In the preparation of the budget of the Organization, the Secretariat of the Organization shall consult with the Secretary-General of the United Nations with a view to achieving, in so far as practicable, uniformity in presentation of the budgets of the United Nations and of the specialized agencies for the purpose of providing a basis for comparison of the several budgets;
- (b) The Organization agrees to transmit its budget or budgetary estimates to the United Nations by 1 July of the preceding year or such other date as may be agreed upon by the United Nations and the Organization. The General Assembly shall examine the budget or budgetary estimates of the Organization and may make such recommendations as it may consider necessary;
- (c) Representatives of the Organization shall be entitled to participate, without vote, in the deliberations of the General Assembly or any committee thereof or established by it, at all times when the budget of the Organization or general administrative or financial questions affecting the Organization are under consideration;

- (d) The United Nations may undertake the collection of contributions from those Members of the Organization which are also members of the United Nations in accordance with such arrangements as may be defined by a later agreement between the United Nations and the Organization;
- (e) The United Nations shall, upon its own initiative or upon the request of the Organization, arrange for studies to be undertaken concerning other financial and fiscal questions of interest to the Organization and to other specialized agencies with a view to the provision of common services and the securing of uniformity in such matters;
- (f) The Organization agrees to conform, as far as may be practicable, to standard practices and forms recommended by the United Nations.

ARTICLE XIII

Financing of special services

(1) In the event of the Organization being faced with the necessity for incurring substantial extra expenses as a result of any request which the United Nations may make for special reports, studies or assistance in accordance with Article VI or with any other provisions of this agreement, the Organization shall consult with the United Nations prior to incurring such expense with a view to determining the most equitable manner in which such expense shall be borne.

(2) Consultation between the United Nations and the Organization shall similarly take place with a view to making such arrangements as may be found equitable for covering the costs of central administrative, technical or fiscal services or facilities or other special assistance requested by the Organization and provided by the United Nations.

ARTICLE XIV

Inter-agency agreements

(1) The Organization agrees to inform the Council of the nature and scope of any formal agreement contemplated between the Organization and any other specialized agency or other intergovernmental organization or international non-governmental organization, and further to inform the Council of the details of any such agreement when concluded.

(2) The United Nations agrees to inform the Organization of the nature and scope of any formal agreement contemplated by any other specialized agencies on matters which might be of concern to the Organization and further will inform the Organization of the details of any such agreement, when concluded.

ARTICLE XV

Liaison

(1) The United Nations and the Organization agree to the foregoing provisions in the belief that they will contribute to the maintenance of effective liaison between the two organizations. They affirm their intention of taking whatever further measures may be necessary to this end.

(2) The liaison arrangements provided for in this agreement shall apply, as far as appropriate, to the relations between such branch and regional offices as may be established by the two organizations as well as between their central headquarters.

ARTICLE XVI

Implementation of the agreement

The Secretary-General of the United Nations and the appropriate authority of the Organization may enter into such supplementary arrangements for the implementation of this agreement as may be found desirable.

ARTICLE XVII

Revision

On six months' notice given on either part, this agreement shall be subject to revision by agreement between the United Nations and the Organization.

ARTICLE XVIII

Entry into force

This agreement shall come into force on its approval by the General Assembly of the United Nations and by the Organization in accordance with Article 25 of the World Meteorological Convention.

CONVENTION ON THE PRIVILEGES AND IMMUNITIES OF THE SPECIALIZED AGENCIES

WHEREAS the General Assembly of the United Nations adopted on 13 February 1946* a resolution contemplating the unification as far as possible of the privileges and immunities enjoyed by the United Nations and by the various specialized agencies; and

WHEREAS consultations concerning the implementation of the aforesaid resolution have taken place between the United Nations and the specialized agencies;

CONSEQUENTLY, by Resolution 179 (II) adopted on 21 November 1947, the General Assembly has approved the following Convention, which is submitted to the specialized agencies for acceptance and to every Member of the United Nations and to every other State member of one or more of the specialized agencies for accession.

ARTICLE I

Definitions and scope

Section 1

In this Convention:

- (i) The words “standard clauses” refer to the provisions of Articles II to IX.
- (ii) The words “specialized agencies” mean:
 - (a) The International Labour Organization;
 - (b) The Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations;
 - (c) The United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization;
 - (d) The International Civil Aviation Organization;
 - (e) The International Monetary Fund;
 - (f) The International Bank for Reconstruction and Development;
 - (g) The World Health Organization;
 - (h) The Universal Postal Union;

* See Resolutions adopted by the General Assembly during the first part of its first session, Resolution No. 22 (I) D

- (i) The International Telecommunication Union; and
- (j) Any other agency in relationship with the United Nations in accordance with Articles 57 and 63 of the Charter.
- (iii) The word “Convention” means, in relation to any particular specialized agency, the standard clauses as modified by the final (or revised) text of the annex transmitted by that agency in accordance with Sections 36 and 38.
- (iv) For the purposes of Article III, the words “property and assets” shall also include property and funds administered by a specialized agency in furtherance of its constitutional functions.
- (v) For the purposes of Articles V and VII, the expression “representatives of members” shall be deemed to include all representatives, alternates, advisers, technical experts and secretaries of delegations.
- (vi) In Sections 13, 14, 15 and 25, the expression “meetings convened by a specialized agency” means meetings: (1) of its assembly and of its executive body (however designated); and (2) of any commission provided for in its constitution; (3) of any international conference convened by it; and (4) of any committee of any of these bodies.
- (vii) The term “executive head” means the principal executive official of the specialized agency in question, whether designated “Director-General” or otherwise.

Section 2

Each State party to this Convention in respect of any specialized agency to which this Convention has become applicable in accordance with Section 37 shall accord to, or in connection with, that agency the privileges and immunities set forth in the standard clauses on the conditions specified therein, subject to any modification of those clauses contained in the provisions of the final (or revised) annex relating to that agency and transmitted in accordance with Sections 36 or 38.

ARTICLE II

Juridical personality

Section 3

The specialized agencies shall possess juridical personality. They shall have the capacity (a) to contract, (b) to acquire and dispose of immovable and movable property, (c) to institute legal proceedings.

ARTICLE III

Property, funds and assetsSection 4

The specialized agencies, their property and assets, wherever located and by whomsoever held, shall enjoy immunity from every form of legal process except in so far as in any particular case they have expressly waived their immunity. It is, however, understood that no waiver of immunity shall extend to any measure of execution.

Section 5

The premises of the specialized agencies shall be inviolable. The property and assets of the specialized agencies, wherever located and by whomsoever held, shall be immune from search, requisition, confiscation, expropriation and any other form of interference, whether by executive, administrative, judicial or legislative action.

Section 6

The archives of the specialized agencies, and in general all documents belonging to them or held by them, shall be inviolable, wherever located.

Section 7

Without being restricted by financial controls, regulations or moratoria of any kind:

- (a) The specialized agencies may hold funds, gold or currency of any kind and operate accounts in any currency;
- (b) The specialized agencies may freely transfer their funds, gold or currency from one country to another or within any country and convert any currency held by them into any other currency.

Section 8

Each specialized agency shall, in exercising its rights under Section 7 above, pay due regard to any representations made by the Government of any State party to this Convention in so far as it is considered that effect can be given to such representations without detriment to the interests of the agency.

Section 9

The specialized agencies, their assets, income and other property shall be:

- (a) Exempt from all direct taxes; it is understood, however, that the specialized agencies will not claim exemption from taxes which are, in fact, no more than charges for public utility services;
- (b) Exempt from customs duties and prohibitions and restrictions on imports and exports in respect of articles imported or exported by the specialized agencies for their official use; it is understood, however, that articles imported under such exemption will not be sold in the country into which they were imported except under conditions agreed to with the Government of that country;
- (c) Exempt from duties and prohibitions and restrictions on imports and exports in respect of their publications.

Section 10

While the specialized agencies will not, as a general rule, claim exemption from excise duties and from taxes on the sale of movable and immovable property which form part of the price to be paid, nevertheless when the specialized agencies are making important purchases for official use of property on which such duties and taxes have been charged or are chargeable, States parties to this Convention will, whenever possible, make appropriate administrative arrangements for the remission or return of the amount of duty or tax.

ARTICLE IVFacilities in respect of communications*Section 11

Each specialized agency shall enjoy, in the territory of each State party to this Convention in respect of that agency, for its official communications, treatment not less favourable than that accorded by the Government of such State to any other Government, including the latter's diplomatic mission, in the matter of priorities, rates and taxes on mails, cables, telegrams, radiograms, telephotos, telephone and other communications, and press rates for information to the press and radio.

Section 12

No censorship shall be applied to the official correspondence and other official communications of the specialized agencies.

The specialized agencies shall have the right to use codes and to dispatch and receive correspondence by courier or in sealed bags, which shall have the same immunities and privileges as diplomatic couriers and bags.

Nothing in this Section shall be construed to preclude the adoption of appropriate security precautions to be determined by agreement between a State party to this Convention and a specialized agency.

ARTICLE V

Representatives of members

Section 13

Representatives of members at meetings convened by a specialized agency shall, while exercising their functions and during their journeys to and from the place of meeting, enjoy the following privileges and immunities:

- (a) Immunity from personal arrest or detention and from seizure of their personal baggage, and in respect of words spoken or written and all acts done by them in their official capacity, immunity from legal process of every kind;
- (b) Inviolability for all papers and documents;
- (c) The right to use codes and to receive papers or correspondence by courier or in sealed bags;
- (d) Exemption in respect of themselves and their spouses from immigration restrictions, aliens' registration or national service obligations in the State which they are visiting or through which they are passing in the exercise of their functions;
- (e) The same facilities in respect of currency or exchange restrictions as are accorded to representatives of foreign Governments on temporary official missions;
- (f) The same immunities and facilities in respect of their personal baggage as are accorded to members of comparable rank of diplomatic missions.

Section 14

In order to secure for the representatives of members of the specialized agencies at meetings convened by them complete freedom of speech and complete independence in the discharge of their duties, the immunity from legal process in respect of words spoken or written and all acts done by them in discharging their duties shall continue to be accorded, notwithstanding that the persons concerned are no longer engaged in the discharge of such duties.

Section 15

Where the incidence of any form of taxation depends upon residence, periods during which the representatives of members of the specialized agencies at meetings convened by them are present in a member State for the discharge of their duties shall not be considered as periods of residence.

Section 16

Privileges and immunities are accorded to the representatives of members, not for the personal benefit of the individuals themselves, but in order to safeguard the independent exercise of their functions in connection with the specialized agencies. Consequently, a member not only has the right but is under a duty to waive the immunity of its representatives in any case where, in the opinion of the member, the immunity would impede the course of justice, and where it can be waived without prejudice to the purpose for which the immunity is accorded.

Section 17

The provisions of Sections 13, 14 and 15 are not applicable in relation to the authorities of a State of which the person is a national or of which he is or has been a representative.

ARTICLE VIOfficials*Section 18

Each specialized agency will specify the categories of officials to which the provisions of this Article and of Article VIII shall apply. It shall communicate them to the Governments of all States parties to this Convention in respect of that agency and to the Secretary-General of the United Nations. The names of the officials included in these categories shall from time to time be made known to the above-mentioned Governments.

Section 19

Officials of the specialized agencies shall:

- (a) Be immune from legal process in respect of words spoken or written and all acts performed by them in their official capacity;

- (b) Enjoy the same exemptions from taxation in respect of the salaries and emoluments paid to them by the specialized agencies and on the same conditions as are enjoyed by officials of the United Nations;
- (c) Be immune, together with their spouses and relatives dependent on them, from immigration restrictions and alien registration;
- (d) Be accorded the same privileges in respect of exchange facilities as are accorded to officials of comparable rank of diplomatic missions;
- (e) Be given, together with their spouses and relatives dependent on them, the same repatriation facilities in time of international crises as officials of comparable rank of diplomatic missions;
- (f) Have the right to import free of duty their furniture and effects at the time of first taking up their post in the country in question.

Section 20

The officials of the specialized agencies shall be exempt from national service obligations, provided that, in relation to the States of which they are nationals, such exemption shall be confined to officials of the specialized agencies whose names have, by reason of their duties, been placed upon a list compiled by the executive head of the specialized agency and approved by the State concerned.

Should other officials of specialized agencies be called up for national service, the State concerned shall, at the request of the specialized agency concerned, grant such temporary deferments in the call-up of such officials as may be necessary to avoid interruption in the continuation of essential work.

Section 21

In addition to the immunities and privileges specified in Sections 19 and 20, the executive head of each specialized agency, including any official acting on his behalf during his absence from duty, shall be accorded in respect of himself, his spouse and minor children, the privileges and immunities, exemptions and facilities accorded to diplomatic envoys, in accordance with international law.

Section 22

Privileges and immunities are granted to officials in the interests of the specialized agencies only and not for the personal benefit of the individuals themselves. Each specialized agency shall have the right and the duty to waive the immunity of any official in any case where, in its opinion, the immunity would impede the course of justice and can be waived without prejudice to the interests of the specialized agency.

Section 23

Each specialized agency shall cooperate at all times with the appropriate authorities of member States to facilitate the proper administration of justice, secure the observance of police regulations and prevent the occurrence of any abuses in connection with the privileges, immunities and facilities mentioned in this article.

ARTICLE VII

Abuses of privileges

Section 24

If any State party to this Convention considers that there has been an abuse of a privilege or immunity conferred by this Convention, consultations shall be held between that State and the specialized agency concerned to determine whether any such abuse has occurred and, if so, to attempt to ensure that no repetition occurs. If such consultations fail to achieve a result satisfactory to the State and the specialized agency concerned, the question whether an abuse of a privilege or immunity has occurred shall be submitted to the International Court of Justice in accordance with Section 32. If the International Court of Justice finds that such an abuse has occurred, the State party to this Convention affected by such abuse shall have the right, after notification to the specialized agency in question, to withhold from the specialized agency concerned the benefits of the privilege or immunity so abused.

Section 25

1. Representatives of members at meetings convened by specialized agencies, while exercising their functions and during their journeys to and from the place of meeting, and officials within the meaning of Section 18, shall not be required by the territorial authorities to leave the country in which they are performing their functions on account of any activities by them in their official capacity. In the case, however, of abuse of privileges of residence committed by any such person in activities in that country outside his official functions, he may be required to leave by the Government of that country provided that:

2. (i) Representatives of members, or persons who are entitled to diplomatic immunity under Section 21, shall not be required to leave the country otherwise than in accordance with the diplomatic procedure applicable to diplomatic envoys accredited to that country.
- (ii) In the case of an official to whom Section 21 is not applicable, no order to leave the country shall be issued other than with the approval of the Foreign Minister of the country in question, and such approval shall be given only after consultation with the executive head of the specialized agency concerned; and, if expulsion proceedings are taken against an official, the executive head of the specialized agency shall have the right to appear in such proceedings on behalf of the person against whom they are instituted.

ARTICLE VIII

Laissez-passer

Section 26

Officials of the specialized agencies shall be entitled to use the United Nations laissez-passer in conformity with administrative arrangements to be concluded between the Secretary-General of the United Nations and the competent authorities of the specialized agencies, to which agencies special powers to issue laissez-passer may be delegated. The Secretary-General of the United Nations shall notify each State party to this Convention of each administrative arrangement so concluded.

Section 27

States parties to this Convention shall recognize and accept the United Nations laissez-passer issued to officials of the specialized agencies as valid travel documents.

Section 28

Applications for visas, where required, from officials of specialized agencies holding United Nations laissez-passer, when accompanied by a certificate that they are travelling on the business of a specialized agency, shall be dealt with as speedily as possible. In addition, such persons shall be granted facilities for speedy travel.

Section 29

Similar facilities to those specified in Section 28 shall be accorded to experts and other persons who, though not the holders of United Nations laissez-passer, have a certificate that they are travelling on the business of a specialized agency.

Section 30

The executive heads, assistant executive heads, heads of departments and other officials of a rank not lower than head of department of the specialized agencies, travelling on United Nations laissez-passer on the business of the specialized agencies, shall be granted the same facilities for travel as are accorded to officials of comparable rank in diplomatic missions.

ARTICLE IX

Settlement of disputesSection 31

Each specialized agency shall make provision for appropriate modes of settlement of:

- (a) Disputes arising out of contracts or other disputes of private character to which the specialized agency is a party;
- (b) Disputes involving any official of a specialized agency who by reason of his official position enjoys immunity, if immunity has not been waived in accordance with the provisions of Section 22.

Section 32

All differences arising out of the interpretation or application of the present Convention shall be referred to the International Court of Justice unless in any case it is agreed by the parties to have recourse to another mode of settlement. If a difference arises between one of the specialized agencies on the one hand, and a member on the other hand, a request shall be made for an advisory opinion on any legal question involved in accordance with Article 96 of the Charter and Article 65 of the Statute of the Court and the relevant provisions of the agreements concluded between the United Nations and the specialized agency concerned. The opinion given by the Court shall be accepted as decisive by the parties.

ARTICLE X

Annexes and application to individual specialized agenciesSection 33

In their application to each specialized agency, the standard clauses shall operate subject to any modifications set forth in the final (or revised) text of the annex relating to that agency, as provided in Sections 36 and 38.

Section 34

The provisions of the Convention in relation to any specialized agency must be interpreted in the light of the functions with which that agency is entrusted by its constitutional instrument.

Section 35

Draft annexes I to IX* are recommended to the specialized agencies named therein. In the case of any specialized agency not mentioned by name in Section 1, the Secretary-General of the United Nations shall transmit to the agency a draft annex recommended by the Economic and Social Council.

Section 36

The final text of each annex shall be that approved by the specialized agency in question in accordance with its constitutional procedure. A copy of the annex as approved by each specialized agency shall be transmitted by the agency in question to the Secretary-General of the United Nations and shall thereupon replace the draft referred to in Section 35.

Section 37

The present Convention becomes applicable to each specialized agency when it has transmitted to the Secretary-General of the United Nations the final text of the relevant annex and has informed him that it accepts the standard clauses, as modified by this annex, and undertakes to give effect to Sections 8, 18, 22, 23, 24, 31, 32, 42 and 45 (subject to any modification of Section 32 which may be found necessary in order to make the final text of the annex consonant with the constitutional instrument of the agency) and any provisions of the annex placing obligations on the agency. The Secretary-General shall communicate to all Members of the United Nations and to other States members of the specialized agencies certified copies of all annexes transmitted to him under this Section and of revised annexes transmitted under Section 38.

Section 38

If, after the transmission of a final annex under Section 36, any specialized agency approves any amendments thereto in accordance with its constitutional procedure, a revised annex shall be transmitted by it to the Secretary-General of the United Nations.

Section 39

The provisions of this Convention shall in no way limit or prejudice the privileges and immunities which have been, or may hereafter be, accorded by any State to any specialized agency by reason of the location in the territory of that State of its headquarters or regional offices. This Convention shall not be deemed to prevent the conclusion between any State party thereto and any specialized agency of supplemental agreements adjusting the provisions of this Convention or extending or curtailing the privileges and immunities thereby granted.

Section 40

It is understood that the standard clauses, as modified by the final text of an annex sent by a specialized agency to the Secretary-General of the United Nations under Section 36 (or any revised annex sent under Section 38), will be consistent with the provisions of the constitutional instrument then in force of the agency in question, and that if any amendment to that instrument is necessary for the purpose of making the constitutional instrument so consistent, such amendment will have been brought into force in accordance with the constitutional procedure of that agency before the final (or revised) annex is transmitted.

The Convention shall not itself operate so as to abrogate, or derogate from, any provisions of the constitutional instrument of any specialized agency or any rights or obligations which the agency may otherwise have, acquire, or assume.

ARTICLE XI

Final provisionsSection 41

Accession to this Convention by a Member of the United Nations and (subject to Section 42) by any State member of a specialized agency shall be effected by deposit with the Secretary-General of the United Nations of an instrument of accession which shall take effect on the date of its deposit.

Section 42

Each specialized agency concerned shall communicate the text of this Convention together with the relevant annexes to those of its members which are not Members of the United Nations and shall invite them to accede thereto in respect of that agency by depositing an instrument of accession to this Convention in respect thereof either with the Secretary-General of the United Nations or with the executive head of the specialized agency.

Section 43

Each State party to this Convention shall indicate in its instrument of accession the specialized agency or agencies in respect of which it undertakes to apply the provisions of this Convention. Each State party to this Convention may by a subsequent written notification to the Secretary-General of the United Nations undertake to apply the provisions of this Convention to one or more further specialized agencies. This notification shall take effect on the date of its receipt by the Secretary-General.

Section 44

This Convention shall enter into force for each State party to this Convention in respect of a specialized agency when it has become applicable to that agency in accordance with Section 37 and the State party has undertaken to apply the provisions of the Convention to that agency in accordance with Section 43.

Section 45

The Secretary-General of the United Nations shall inform all Members of the United Nations, as well as all members of the specialized agencies, and executive heads of the specialized agencies, of the deposit of each instrument of accession received under Section 41 and of subsequent notifications received under Section 43. The executive head of a specialized agency shall inform the Secretary-General of the United Nations and the members of the agency concerned of the deposit of any instrument of accession deposited with him under Section 42.

Section 46

It is understood that, when an instrument of accession or a subsequent notification is deposited on behalf of any State, this State will be in a position under its own law to give effect to the terms of this Convention, as modified by the final texts of any annexes relating to the agencies covered by such accessions or notifications.

Section 47

1. Subject to the provisions of paragraphs 2 and 3 of this Section, each State party to this Convention undertakes to apply this Convention in respect of each specialized agency covered by its accession or subsequent notification, until such time as a revised convention or annex shall have become applicable to that agency and the said State shall have accepted the revised convention or annex. In the case of a revised annex, the acceptance of States shall be by a notification addressed to the Secretary-General of the United Nations, which shall take effect on the date of its receipt by the Secretary-General.
2. Each State party to this Convention, however, which is not, or has ceased to be, a member of a specialized agency, may address a written notification to the Secretary-General of the United Nations and the executive head of the agency concerned to the effect that it intends to withhold from that agency the benefits of this Convention as from a specified date, which shall not be earlier than three months from the date of receipt of the notification.
3. Each State party to this Convention may withhold the benefit of this Convention from any specialized agency which ceases to be in relationship with the United Nations.
4. The Secretary-General of the United Nations shall inform all member States parties to this Convention of any notification transmitted to him under the provisions of this Section.

Section 48

At the request of one-third of the States parties to this Convention, the Secretary-General of the United Nations will convene a conference with a view to its revision.

Section 49

The Secretary-General of the United Nations shall transmit copies of this Convention to each specialized agency and to the Government of each Member of the United Nations.

ANNEX XIThe World Meteorological Organization

CONCERNING THE AGREEMENT BETWEEN THE SWISS FEDERAL COUNCIL AND
GOVERNING THE LEGAL STATUS OF THIS ORGANIZATION IN SWITZERLAND AND THE PLAN OF EXECUTION OF THE SAID AGREEMENT

Considering that the World Meteorological Organization and the Swiss Federal Council, parties to the present Protocol, have agreed that no special arrangements concerning the issue by the Swiss Federal Authorities of special postage stamps for use by the World Meteorological Organization, either exclusively or jointly with other organizations, would be made at the moment of concluding the Agreement between the World Meteorological Organization and the Swiss Federal Council governing the legal status of the said Organization and the Plan of Execution of that Agreement;

Considering that the parties to the present Protocol have agreed that the World Meteorological Organization will have the benefit generally in Switzerland, in so far as concerns its postal communications, of conditions not less favourable than those already granted the United Nations and other specialized international organizations established in Switzerland, which are accorded similar treatment;

The World Meteorological Organization and the Swiss Federal Council agree, by the present document, to the following provisions:

ARTICLE 1

The parties to the present Protocol undertake to re-open negotiations, at the request of either the World Meteorological Organization or the Swiss Federal Council, concerning the issue by the Swiss Federal Authorities of special postage stamps for use by the World Meteorological Organization, either exclusively or jointly with other organizations.

ARTICLE 2

All agreements between the parties shall be governed by the regulations established by the Universal Postal Union and the conditions of issue of the said stamps shall be based on the arrangements made in this connection with other international organizations established in Switzerland.

ARTICLE 3

The present Protocol shall come into force upon signature by the two parties.
